Police Out To End Armed Hold-ups; One Man Pleads Guilty

Commission Holds Special Meeting and Steps Taken to Combat Crime Wave

Baker Made To Open Own Safe

By canceling all day leaves in order to strengthen night patrols the City Police Commission, at a special meeting yesterday, instituted a concerted effort towards increasing public protection from hold-up men who have committed three robberies since the beginning of the year.

The city police this morning charged Kenneth Watson with taking part in the armed hold-up of Miss Mary Gourlay, 2209 Fernwood Road, last Thursday night. He pleaded guilty in the City Police Court this morning on a charge that he, with a person or persons unknown, did rob Miss Gourlay.

Watson was arrested by Detectives William Stark and Walter Caldwell and identified as being one of the three masked men entered Miss Gourlay's store and robbed her of $15. He was remanded to tomorrow for sentence.

Later in the morning detectives had in custody a suspect for the armed hold-up on Saturday night of Donald J. McLean, baker, who, at the point of a gun, was made to open the safe of his store at 1052 Pandora Avenue. The bandits helped themselves to $150.

The hold-up took place about 7.15 as Mr. McLean was preparing his day's accounting. Two men marched into the rear of the shop with the order to "stick 'em up."

Mr. McLean did so and was told then to lie on the floor with his face down. As he did this the thieves ransacked the premises without success. They then commanded him to open the safe.

After getting the money and tearing the telephone from the wall they ordered Mr. McLean to get out a back door which gave access to a darkened lane.

Police were later informed a passerby had seen an old model coupe drive out of this lane about the time of the robbery. The police commission action yesterday followed a speedily-called conference with Acting Chief J. A. McLellan. Night shifts will be considerably strengthened by the move and a greater check will be maintained in the downtown section.

BOMBS RAIN ON SPANISH CITIES

French Territory Struck By Rebel Missiles During Air Raid Near Frontier

PERPIGNAN, France (AP)—Aerial bombing spread destruction through a dozen Spanish cities today, causing at least 80 deaths. Hundreds were wounded by insurgent and government fliers, ranging widely behind the lines.

The insurgents were still on the offensive at Teruel, trying to recapture the strategic south Aragon city in Eastern Spain, but the clash had slowed down into dogged trench fighting.

A fleet of five insurgent gunboats shelled Valencia, standing about five miles off the port and firing 40 shells. A government report said little damage resulted.

SEVILLE FIGHT—A government attack on Seville, insurgent-held city 350 miles southwest of Madrid, killed 24 persons and wounded 20.

An insurgent raid on the railroad centre of Pulgarcia killed between 21 and 30 persons, while 17 were wounded. Fourteen were killed and 50 injured in two at-

Former City Electrician Succumbs to Heart Attack in 70th Year

Matthew Hutchison, who was associated for four decades with the growth of Victoria's public services, died suddenly yesterday morning in his seventieth year. He was formerly the city electrical engineer and superintendent of the lighting department.

Mr. Hutchison passed away at the residence of his brother, Robert Hutchison, 546 Ellice Street. He succumbed to a heart attack.

Mr. Hutchison retired three years ago from his post with the city after a connection of forty years. Members of the civic administration at that time expressed sincere appreciation of his long services.

Under his guidance the city's lighting system developed from a few arc lights in the centre of the streets to its modern state of cluster lighting and well-illuminated streets in all districts.

BORN IN SCOTLAND

He was born in Paisley, Scotland in 1868. Schooled at Belfast he was intrigued as a boy by mechanical and electrical things and became an apprentice in mechanical engineering, serving with Harland and Wolfe, Belfast; Fleming and Ferguson, Paisley; and the Gungun Company, Leicester. With the Cartha Electric Works at Paisley he spent a period of research and experiment on electrical and mechanical devices.

Bringing Beulah Back to an Even Keel

Righting of the submerged Panama motorship in the Outer Harbor was completed Sunday afternoon by the Pacific Salvage Company. Within 15 minutes of the actual commencement of the haul the Beulah was lifted from a starboard lie to an upright position. Divers were under water this morning further sealing the hull for the raising of the vessel.

VANCOUVER CHIEF CALLED AT TRIAL

VANCOUVER (CP)—A complaint that Col. W. W. Foster, Vancouver's chief constable, left the city Sunday in the face of a warning he would be called as a witness in the trial of C. H. Cahan Jr. was made in county court today by C. Carmichael, assisting the accused in his defence.

The trial of Cahan, on a charge of robbery with violence laid after the December 1 hold-up of a suburban branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce here, entered its sixth day.

Judge J. N. Ellis replied to Carmichael he could not see that calling of Col. Foster would mean much in the case.

Frank Willis, meanwhile, was held by city police on a charge of perjury sworn out by Cahan Saturday afternoon.

He appeared in city police court today and was remanded for one week by Magistrate H. S. Wood.

FASTING DEAN FORCIBLY FED

Physicians Seek to Save Life of Very Rev. I. H. Noel

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A physician attending Very Rev. Israel Harding Noel said today the Episcopal clergyman, whose fast to attain immortality was ended Sunday against his will, had a "chance" for life.

The doctor, who asked that his name be withheld, undertook to restore strength to the 47-year-old former dean of St. Mary's Episcopal Cathedral after he was taken to a hospital Sunday night. He had fallen into a "deep sleep" at the end of 22 days of abstinence.

"There has been no material change in his condition since last night," the physician reported. "The dean still has a chance. If he recovers it will be a gradual process. If he dies, it also will be a gradual process."

The 47-year-old, ousted dean was rushed to the hospital Sunday night.

Physicians announced the fast was broken at 8.35 Sunday night, when the first intravenous injection was given. They said a saline solution containing 5 per cent glucose was used. The second feeding was given early today.

The doctors said the patient would be fed by this method about every eight hours until the diet could be changed.

Banks Say Alberta Tax Plan Too Heavy

If Courts Uphold Bill They May Quit Field, Rowell Board Told

OTTAWA (CP)—If the courts uphold Alberta's bank taxation legislation, the banks "obviously might find it impossible to operate in that province," the Royal Commission on Dominion-Provincial Relations was told today.

S. G. Dobson, president of the Canadian Bankers' Association, made the statement when presenting a brief on taxation in equalities in Canada. The banks, he said, did not consider a tax on capital as equitable or effi-

Decision of Board of Governors Is Announced

VANCOUVER (CP)—Dr. L. S. Klinck, president of the University of British Columbia, announced today the institution would "drastically limit" registration of first year students next fall.

At the same time, Dr. Klinck said registration fees would be increased, and that $10,000 had been appropriated for scholarships and bursaries.

The decisions were reached last week at a meeting of the board of governors, held after the provincial government had failed to provide an annual grant sufficiently large to cope with present overcrowding.

Beginning with the 1938-39 session, number of first year students in the faculty of arts and science and faculty of agriculture will be limited to 450. The number registered last fall was 545.

Registrations in the second year of applied science will be limited to 120, compared with 163 registrations for the present year.

Tuition fees in arts and science, agriculture, social service, nursing and health and teacher training will be lifted from $125 to $150. Applied science fees will be increased from $175 to $200.

The increase was expected to add $50,000 to the university's revenue, Dr. Klinck said. He announced one-fifth of this amount would be set aside for scholarships and bursaries, and that the remaining $40,000 would be spent on the library and additional equipment.

DEATH CALLS POLICE CHIEF

Thomas Heatley Succumbs in Hospital to Short Illness

After a short, but severe illness, Thomas Heatley, chief of the Victoria City Police Department, passed away in the Royal Jubilee Hospital Saturday night at 9.30.

His death ended a career that was linked with police work since he joined the Edinburgh force at the age of 19. In July, 1937, he recorded 25 years association with the Victoria police.

LATE THOMAS HEATLEY

The late chief of police leaves a wide circle of friends inside and outside the force, many of whom had been the subject of his unpublicized benefactions on numerous occasions.

Born in Sprouton, near Berwick-on-Tweed, Scotland, on April 19, 1880—the son of Thomas Heatley, a Scottish engineer—Chief Heatley's early boyhood ambition was to be a policeman. In 1905 he went to Australia. For two and a half years he served in the Queensland Constabulary, but in 1908 he returned to Scotland for his health, with the intention of later resuming his work in Australia.

This latter intention was not carried out, however, for late in 1908 he joined the English police as a constable on the Sunderland police force.

HERE IN 1912

Four years later he came to Victoria and on July 6, 1912, he joined the city police as a constable.

For ten years he was a first-class constable on the city force, and in 1922 he was made a sergeant. His ability in this capacity was soon realized, and two years later he was again promoted and became an inspector. In 1926, however, his career of (Turn to Page 2, Col. 6)

Planes Lead In Suchow Battle

SHANGHAI (AP)—Japanese planes Monday bombed defences of Suchow, centre of Chinese resistance along the Man east-west railway, the Lungshai line.

Japanese spokesmen said locomotive sheds, freight trains and nearby barracks were destroyed. Meanwhile, Japanese columns pushing toward the city from the north and south fought indecisive engagements.

A few miles to the south and southeast of Shanghai, Japanese infantry and air attacks were credited by the spokesmen as cleaning out all Chinese guerrilla opposition in Pootung.

GEN. HAN SHOT

HANKOW, China (AP)—Gen. Han Fu-chu, 48, who failed to prevent the Japanese armies from conquering most of Shanghai province, Monday was found guilty of treason and shot.

Mrs. Charlie George, an Indian, and her two children were drowned yesterday when their gasboat was wrecked off Dillon Point, between Port Rupert and Alert Bay, according to B.C. police radio advices received today.

Charlie George, the husband, was rescued and is now in the Alert Bay Hospital suffering from exposure.

Provincial police said the Georges left Port Rupert last Thursday morning for Alert Bay. Constable J. Howe of the Alert Bay detachment, reported the body of one of the children had been recovered.

DAKAR, French West Africa (CP-Havas)—Bruno Mussolino, Col. Attilio Biseo and Pilot Nino Mascarelli landed here at 4.20 p.m. local time (9.20 a.m. P.S.T.) today after a 2,500-mile three-plane formation flight from Guidonia, Italy.

Their elapsed flying time from Guidonia to Dakar was 10 hours, 50 minutes.

The fliers plan to hop from here to Natal, Brazil, across the South Atlantic.

Kidnapper Eyed Two Ball Players

J. H. Seadlund, Slayer of C. S. Ross, Chicago, Considered Dean and DiMaggio

WASHINGTON (AP)—Department of Justice officials said today John Henry Seadlund (alias Peter Anders), confessed kidnapper of Charles S. Ross, had contemplated kidnapping two major league baseball players.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, telephoned that information to the Department this morning. Hoover said Seadlund, now in custody at Chicago, had told federal agents that before kidnapping and killing Ross, and killing his accomplice, James A. Gray, he had talked with Gray about kidnapping "Dizzy" Dean of the St. Louis Cardinals for $50,000 ransom.

SUM TOO LARGE

Seadlund eventually decided, Hoover said, the St. Louis club might be unwilling to pay that large a sum for Dean's return.

The bureau chief also related Seadlund and Gray later had debated the possibility of kidnapping a member of the New York (Turn to Page 2, Col. 7)

TOKIO (CP-Havas)—Japan may ask the Canadian government to take steps in connection with the attempt made by two Canadians last week to blow up the 11,621-ton Japanese express liner Hiye Maru at Seattle, it was learned here Monday.

The incident, which led to the death of Rolphe Forsyth, Vancouver schoolteacher, one of the two men involved, and resulted in no damage to the ship, was discussed at the Foreign Office Monday by Eugene H. Dornan, counsellor of the United States embassy.

According to Domei (Japanese News Agency) he expressed "regret" over the incident.

The Hiye Maru is now at sea, bound for Yokohama, having sailed Saturday from Vancouver.

SEEKING HIGHER UPS

SEATTLE (AP)—Seattle police today were convinced that Rolphe Forsyth, 28, Vancouver schoolteacher and adventurer who lost his life in an asserted attempt to bomb the Japanese liner Hiye Maru here last Thursday, had "powerful backing."

They said they suspected "a secret society inspired and financed the plot," and they revealed details with which, they said, George H. Partridge, 22, Vancouver, had elaborated his earlier statements of how he and Forsyth had bungled attempts to bomb the Hiye at Vancouver, B.C., and Tacoma.

Seattle Detective Lieuts. W. T. O'Brien and F. A. Himes said the search for the suspected "higher-ups" in the ship bombing plot would probably take them to Vancouver, B.C., today. They said Vancouver police would be asked to co-operate in their Canadian investigation.

HE SPENT $200

Himes pointed to the fact the jobless Forsyth is known to have spent nearly $200 on preparation for the bombing attempt as basis for the police belief he had outside help. The 1,560 sticks of (Turn to Page 2, Col. 3)

Actress Found Dead in Auto

Rosamond Pinchot Stated to Have Committed Suicide at Oyster Bay, N.Y.

OYSTER BAY, N.Y. (AP)—The ermine-wrapped body of Rosamond Pinchot, known to millions as the nun in Max Reinhardt's Biblical spectacle, "The Miracle," was found today in a closed automobile on the Harry Alexander estate here.

The death of the tall, golden-haired actress was listed as a suicide in an official report filed with the Nassau County police by Deputy Medical Examiner Lewis F. Ellmore.

Miss Pinchot was the daughter of the socially prominent Amos Pinchot and a niece of former Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania.

The body was found in a sedan parked in a garage on the Long Island estate, which she had leased.

In private life Miss Pinchot was the wife of William Gaston, prominent lawyer.

MAINLAND PROTEST ON NEW RADIO FEE

VANCOUVER (CP)—The radio committee of the Retail Merchants' Association, Vancouver section, at a meeting today, decided to forward to Ottawa "strong protests" concerning the proposed tax of $2.50 on every radio set.

Alex Forster, chairman, said the principal objection was not so much to the extra 50 cent license fee, but rather that the tax would be levied on each radio set. Many persons now owned two or more radios, and the increased tax probably would result in slower sales of that nature.

Watson For Saanich
Reeveship

Ratepayers of Saanich returned Reeve William Crouch for his twelfth consecutive term, and, with one exception, returned all last year's office holders who sought re-election.

In Esquimalt where there were contests only for school board and police commission seats, the vote was the smallest in years.

Contesting his re-election for the first time since 1935, Reeve Crouch scored a victory over John Watson, former Ward One councillor, by 1,671 votes to 772. Reeve Crouch had majorities in all wards. Expressing his thanks for the decisive victory, the reeve said:

"My grateful thanks to the electors of Saanich municipality who, for the twelfth time in succession, have elected me as their reeve by such a splendid majority."

"It proves to me that the taxpayers still have faith and confidence in their reeve. I shall certainly strive throughout the year to retain that trust and confidence."

A. G. Lambbrick, a member of last year's council in Ward Three scored a double victory when he was re-elected to the council and also ousted Lewis W. Goddard, candidate for re-election to the police commission. The only new face appearing on the council this year will be that of J. W. Howroyd, who defeated Sidney Hunt in the Ward One contest.

Dr. Stanley F. Miles, making his debut into municipal affairs, topped the school board poll with a total vote of 1,456. M. W. Dawson, another newcomer, was second and Trustee A. E. Hull, seeking re-election, third.

George H. Kinch, who served on the commission in 1935 and 1936, won the police commission seat with a majority of 89 votes over Edward Harold Sweeney.

M. HUTCHISON DIES SUD- DENLY

He took further training at Queen's College, Belfast; the Mechanical Institute, Dublin; and Andersonian College, Glasgow, coming to Canada in 1887. He joined the Royal Electric Company of Montreal and shortly after became a member of the Edison Company's Dominion Agency as construction engineer. In that capacity he went to all parts of Canada to carry out contracts for plant installations.

He worked on the electrical plants of the C.P.R. hotel at Banff, the Hotel Vancouver, and in Victoria to put in additional equipment at what was the first commercial electric lighting station in Canada.

Mr. Hutchison was in Montreal when he received an offer from E. Crow Baker to take charge of the Langley Street Light Station. Victoria had appealed to him and he accepted immediately. He was there until the plant was destroyed in 1925 and was on the point of returning east when friends prevailed on him to accept the post of superintendent of electric light works and the fire alarm system.

MADE SUPERINTENDENT

During four decades the lighting system grew under his direction. He developed an efficient trouble-shooting staff and complaints from the public were few and far between. In 1912 he was given the title of city electrical engineer and superintendent of the lighting department.

Mr. Hutchison was well known as an enthusiastic basketball player. On Saturday night he was not feeling well and did not attend the Dominions-Varsity game but he listened to it over the radio.

He was also interested in model-making and fishing. He and his brother Robert had been working for 40 years on a model, 12 by 14 inches, of a reciprocating marine engine. While Mr. Hutchison was in Scotland last year Robert set the model working for the first time. Mathew never saw it work.

Each year for 20 years the two brothers spent three weeks fishing at Great Central Lake.

Mr. Hutchison is survived by two brothers, Robert and Thomas, engineer at the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, and two sisters, Mrs. A. E. Boyd of Quesnel, and Mrs. W. E. Cook, who left on December 22 last to make her home in Melbourne, Australia. Mr. Hutchison had planned to visit Mrs. Boyd next winter.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 from the B.C. Funeral Parlors.

Tisdall Defeated In Record Vote

DUNCAN Councillor D. D. Chapman on Saturday defeated Reeve G. A. Tisdall, for the last nine years chief magistrate of North Cowichan. The vote was 368 to 298. Chapman led the polls in all districts except Somers Lake, the defeated reeve's own district. It was the largest vote in the history of the municipality.

Councillor H. E. Evans was re-elected over D. Coupland, 149 to 32, in the Somers Lake ward. James Aitken defeated P. W. Stanhope, 73 to 33, in the Comia-

Trustee Maitland defeated B. F. Burrows, 282 to 171, for a seat on the Consolidated Board of School Trustees.

JAPAN IN BOMB PROTEST MAY ASK CANADA ACT

dynamite recovered in Seattle and Tacoma cost $80 alone.

Other Seattle detectives were seeking the place where the explosives were purchased, Himes said. Only a few places handle dynamite in such quantity, and the explosives source should be quickly found, O'Brien said.

United States customs inspectors and Seattle and Tacoma police found a quarter-ton of dynamite used by Forsyth. The suitcase bomb found floating on a railway tie in Seattle harbor contained 369 sticks, and George H. Partridge, Forsyth's confessed aide, led the officers Saturday to a point on the Puyallup River where 1,191 sticks were taken from the water. Partridge said the explosives found in Tacoma were hastily dumped when the first attempt to bomb the Hiye Maru went awry. Forsyth drowned in the second attempt, made in Seattle. His body was found in the bay.

OPEN CHARGE

Partridge is still held here on an open charge. O'Brien and Himes would not say whether he would accompany them to Vancouver.

They said Partridge told them he and Forsyth had planned to bomb the liner at Vancouver, but failed when they failed in an attempt to purchase dynamite. However, they obtained three devices designed to turn off radio receivers automatically, planning to use them to detonate bombs, but Partridge, fearing United States customs agents might find it and become suspicious, tossed overboard the one he carried en route to Seattle.

The detectives said Partridge recounted how the pair had gone to Tacoma and rented an automobile and a tourist cabin, and Forsyth disappeared, returning a later with eight 50-pound cases of dynamite. The next day, Jan. 18, Forsyth, again alone, looked over the Puyallup River, a mile above the Hiye's Tacoma moorings and rented a small river-bank cottage through J. B. Larson for $3 a month.

Larson Sunday told the detectives Forsyth had said he lived in Tacoma and often walked for recreation. "He had a map of the city and seemed to be studying the waterway," Larson added.

SAYS BOAT STOLEN

The detective said Partridge told how they went upriver a quarter-mile and stole a 16-foot motorboat from Charles Meade. With the motor silent, they drifted downstream and moored the craft near their cottage while they completed bombs.

Himes said the men discovered someone had stolen their remaining timing devices, and Partridge had to go to a drugstore, buy an alarm clock and devise a new detonating device.

"The dynamite was to have been put in watertight cans attached beneath three logs," Himes recounted Partridge's story. All three logs were to have been connected with wires, to be set off by the timing device.

"They were going to use the motorboat to tow the three logs downriver to the Hiye," said the detective. "They knew the ship had watertight compartments, but thought if the 'torpedoes' were spaced about 100 feet apart and were placed alongside the ship, they would strike a vital spot and destroy, or at least overturn the ship. But Partridge began to lose his nerve."

Partridge said he decided bombing the motorship was "too gruesome," so he set the boat adrift; they hastily cached all the dynamite save one 900-stick bomb and brought it to Seattle, where Forsyth drowned in a nearly successful attempt to blast the liner.

GRANTS BOARD IS ADVOCATED

Investment Dealers Propose
Plan For Dominion-Provincial Finances

OTTAWA (CP)—If the credit standing of all governments in Canada is to be restored and maintained, long-range fiscal policies must be adopted which will assure continued balanced budgets, the Investment Dealers' Association of Canada today told the Royal Commission on Dominion-Provincial Relations.

A reallocation of fiscal powers and responsibilities among the several jurisdictions might prove a solution, it was submitted. However, the association recognized that for some provinces even then, because of basic variations in Canadian economic conditions.

That aid might take the form of annual subsidies or conditional grants for provinces which "did not give promise" of a budgetary balance, the association suggested. Special grants and loans would be made on the advice of a permanent Dominion grants commission to be set up, working with a national consultative committee representative of the provinces and the federal Finance Department.

CLEARING HOUSE

That committee, meeting regularly, would act as a clearing house for information on capital works programmes and general financing problems of the province and would give each province a perspective of the relation of its own activities to the problems of public finance in the Dominion as a whole.

The association held annual subsidies were "essentially vicious in principle," but condoned them "only because of a desire to assure the public's requirements for governmental services and to achieve some unity in fiscal policies."

Que., Crowded By 2,000
During Requiem For 46

ST. HYACINTHE, Que. (CP)—The sombre requiem service of the Roman Catholic Church was chanted today for the 46 boys and men who met death when the Sacred Heart College was swept by fire last Tuesday morning.

Draped in the black of mourning, St. Hyacinthe's Cathedral echoed for more than an hour to the ritual of the funeral service, while a saddened congregation of 2,000 packed its vaulted interior and thousands more stood in snow outside its grey stone walls.

Outside the cathedral's altar rail stood a row of 17 coffins, each enclosing the seared body of one of those who died in the early morning blaze that trapped teachers and students on the upper floors of the four-story building. The bodies of 19 others still lay in the ruins, and the requiem was for them, also, and the others buried elsewhere.

EVIDENCE WANTED

Meanwhile, Marcel Quesnel, 68-year-old one-armed watchman of the college, was detained in the St. Hyacinthe jail as an "important" witness for the coroner's inquest into the tragedy.

Orders for his detention were issued by Coroner Paul Morin, who was scheduled to resume his inquest later today, with Brother Lucius, director of the institution, recalled for questioning by officers of the Attorney-General's department.

success was temporarily halted by the reorganization of the city police under the then newly appointed chief, John Fry. At this time Mr. Heatley was made a desk sergeant.

Complete recognition of his splendid ability as a police officer came in 1931, however, when he was made chief of the department to succeed Mr. Fry.

Under Chief Heatley's administration the police department enjoyed many progressive changes and his constant demand for progressive traffic changes, are well known in the city. It was under his steady urging that traffic lights were first introduced in Victoria and prowler car patrols were increased.

Although widely recognized for his general sportsmanship and sense of fairness, Chief Heatley had few public interests outside his family.

Mr. Heatley was predeceased in 1936 by his first wife, and this year he married Miss Margaret Walker, former city police woman. Besides his widow he is survived by one son, George, a member of the British Columbia Police; one daughter, Mary, of Victoria; three sisters, Miss Charlotte Heatley, of Saanich; Mrs. R. Wilson, of Berwick-on-Tweed, and Mrs. F. Burns, Edinburgh, and one brother, William K. Heatley, employed with the C.P.R. at Regina. Another brother, John K. Heatley, was killed in the Great War.

A police funeral will be held on Wednesday at 2 at Metropolitan United Church. Interment will be made at Colwood Cemetery.

Tributes to the memory of Chief Heatley were paid this morning by Mayor Andrew McGavin, Magistrate Henry Hall, C. L. Harrison, city prosecutor, and Acting-Chief J. A. McLellan.

"I was deeply shocked to learn of the passing of Chief Heatley," said Mayor McGavin. "I knew the chief for many years before I was elected to the police commission and my close acquaintance with him over the last few years strengthened the high opinion I had always held as to his ability and integrity."

"I was partly responsible for his promotion to the office of chief of police, and I have never had any cause to regret my action."

"Chief Heatley held the respect and loyalty of all members of the police department and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends in the city. The pleasing personality of the chief also won him a large number of friends in police circles of the province and in the State of Washington."

"My sympathy goes out to Mrs. Heatley and members of the family in their bereavement."

TRIBUTE IN COURT

Magistrate Hall, at the opening of police court this morning, said: "The late chief-joined the police department over a quarter of a century ago and during that time rose to the highest appointment in the department. All who knew him recognized he won that promotion by qualities of mind and heart that entitles him to it. The chief had many fine qualities and he instilled a fine sense of discipline into the department. He had also a high sense of duty."

"I like to remember him most, however, for his justness and fairness to the department and the public generally. I think all who knew him will join in that tribute. The department has suffered a great loss and I should like to convey my sympathy to his widow and family in their bereavement."

Mr. Harrison and Acting-Chief McLellan joined with the magistrate in his remarks, and H. W. Davey, on behalf of the Victoria Bar, said he would also like to associate himself with the tributes. Mr. Davey made particular reference to his scrupulous fairness.

At Magistrate Hall's suggestion the transcribed notes of the tributes will be placed in the police magistrate's book as a permanent record of the esteem in which the late chief was held.

Thieves Enter Nanaimo Homes

NANAIMO—Several homes have been entered in recent days and police this morning issued a warning to householders to securely lock their doors and windows when they go out for the evening.

A double robbery took place at the home of J. Salmon on Pridemont Street. It was entered one night and approximately $230 in cash and a valuable camera were taken. A few days later, when Mr. and Mrs. Salmon were absent, thieves returned and stole a revolver.

A town home was broken into, but only 35 cents was taken. A Chinese reported he was robbed at his lonely farm home,

KIDNAPPER EYED TWO BALL PLAYERS

DIMAGGIO SURPRISED

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe DiMaggio, star outfielder of the New York Yankees, said today he was as surprised as the rest of the baseball world to hear he had been marked for kidnapping, along with "Dizzy" Dean, St. Louis Cardinal pitcher, by the abductors of Charles S. Ross, wealthy elderly Chicagoan.

"Last night's radio report was the first I ever heard of it," the highly-paid Joe commented sleepily on being routed out of bed this morning. "And I never had a guard."

J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, sat silent in a National Broadcasting Company studio Sunday night as Walter Winchell, radio commentator, made the following announcement:

"John Edgar Hoover, chief of the G-men, stated tonight Peter Anders (Seadlund), the kidnapper-murderer of Charles S. Ross of Chicago, had made plans with his late confederate Alwood Gray, to kidnap 'Dizzy' Dean, the famous St. Louis pitcher."

"That plan was abandoned, however. . . . They also discussed snatching Joe DiMaggio."

Hoover, immediately besieged by news men, declined to see them. A broadcast official took in word they wanted comment, and returned quoting Hoover as follows:

"No comment whatsoever. What Mr. Winchell said was correct."

SEEK MORE EVIDENCE

CHICAGO (AP)—John Henry Seadlund, confessed slayer of his kidnap victim and an accomplice, rested in a skyscraper cell today while federal agents gathered further evidence to bind a case with which they hope to send him to the electric chair.

Seadlund, known as Peter Anders until Chief J. Edgar Hoover of the Federal Bureau of Investigation disclosed further facts in the case after rushing the prisoner from St. Paul, Minn., by plane Saturday night, will be tried under the Lindbergh law for abducting elderly Charles S. Ross last September 25 for $50,000 ransom.

Hoover said Seadlund would be "arraigned as quickly as possible." Indications were it would be during today.

Hospital Has Fewer Patients

Jubilee Directors Told Number During December Lower

The Jubilee Hospital had on the average 18 fewer patients per day during December, 1937, than in the same month of 1936, the hospital's board of directors was informed at its monthly meeting Friday night. The daily average in December, 1937, was 286 patients against 304 in December, 1936. Admissions during the last month of last year were 336 and patients discharged numbered 367.

The board ordered letters of thanks sent to a number of organizations which helped the hospital with its Christmas celebrations. Appreciation was expressed for the kindness of the Gonzales Chapter, I.O.E., which released its room to make space for an additional operating room. The name Gonzales Chapter will continue to be associated with the same room, although the library has been removed from the fifth to the fourth floor.

The board was informed the new charge of 80 cents per day for the care of tubercular patients did not affect the hospital, but only outside institutions. F. E. Winslow, president, was in the chair.

Three Hundred Dogs Killed

Destroyed During Year For Straying in the Park

Because owners allowed them to stray in the park, 316 dogs were destroyed by the city pound-keeper last year, W. H. Warren, parks superintendent, reports.

In all cases in which dogs are taken from prohibited areas in the city, as well as in instances where stray dogs without license tags are caught, every effort is made by the department to find their owners. Those bearing tags are traced through the license numbers. Owners are notified and instructed to call for their pets.

Where dogs are caught without tags, a description of the animals is posted at the entrance to the City Hall. If no one claims unidentified dogs after the required period of three days, and if they are not purchased at auction within the next three days, they are destroyed.

Education On Defence Urged

Native Sons to Submit Recommendation to Prime Minister King

Institution of a Dominion-wide campaign to educate Canadians in the need for adequate defences will be urged on Prime Minister Mackenzie King by the Native Sons of British Columbia.

This decision was one of several reached on Saturday night at a meeting of the executive of the Grand Post of the order here. The meeting was attended by delegates from Vancouver, New Westminster, Nanaimo and Ladysmith.

The executive will also ask the provincial government to take steps for a new census of Oriental residents in the province. The organization, which has made an extensive study of the question of Orientals in British Columbia during the last three years, congratulated Dr. W. A. Carrothers for his recent survey based on the census figures of 1931. However, exception was taken to the census figures themselves. The Native Sons claimed there were several thousands more Japanese resident in British Columbia in 1931 than the census indicated.

In another resolution the Grand Post urged the Dominion Government to cancel the gentleman's agreement under which a limited number of Japanese are admitted to Canada each year. Members felt that in view of present circumstances, especially the conflict in China, no further encouragement should be given to Japanese immigration.

The executive also discussed a number of recommendations which it proposes to include in a brief to be presented to the Rowell Commission on Dominion-provincial Relations during its British Columbia session in March.

PAUL WANER GOLF VICTOR

Pittsburgh Outfielder Wins Annual Baseball Players' Tournament

SARASOTA, Fla.—Paul Waner, Pittsburgh outfielder, is baseball's champion golfer.

The elder of the Waner brothers defeated Jack Russell, former American League pitcher, 6 and 5, to win the annual baseball players' golf tournament here yesterday.

Established as the pre-tourney favorite in the players' auction, Waner played a consistent par game in the 36-hole final. Five up on Russell at the end of the morning round, the Pirate left-hander added another hole on the final eighteen to terminate the match on the 31st green.

Joe Medwick, National League batting champion and St. Louis Cardinal outfielder, gave the one and only Jerome Herman Dean a neat demonstration of his golfing prowess in annexing second flight laurels. Medwick not only halved his teammate, 6 and 5, but rifled a shot 277 yards down the fairway to cop the driving contest.

Jo Jo White of Detroit took third flight honors, turning back Heinie Manush, Brooklyn veteran, one up.

For Dean, the tournament proved an expensive affair. Checking up, the Cardinal pitcher said he lost a total of $1,550 in bets. Failure to qualify for the first flight, "Ole Diz" said, cost him $1,000 wagered against $20,000 with an undisclosed person.

Duncan Veterans Win Cue Matches

Billiard players of the Duncan Branch of the Canadian Legion paid a return visit to the Britannia Branch, View Street, last week and after a seven-game match emerged winners by 130 points.

Jack Neary, president of the branch, congratulated the visitors on their victory and J. Mowbray responded and invited the Britannia Branch players to visit Duncan. Refreshments were served.

Recreation Work

All centres in the Victoria district are maintaining a working attendance. Those in the city proper are much higher in attendance than centres situated at Esquimalt, Lake Hill, Marigold and North Saanich.

Harry Bennett, Arnold Dawkins, Alan White and Eric Moyes are now working on the districts in which centres are located, in a drive for increased attendance for men at the centres. In this way they hope to effect a greater representation at the Victoria mass display which is to be staged on April 8 at the Bay Street Armories.

With the Vancouver mass display in view, members are asked to support the centre dance at the Crystal Garden February 11.

Chief Heatley

FOR A QUARTER OF A CENTURY

Thomas Heatley had been a member of the Victoria City Police force, first as a constable in 1912, rising by sheer dint of conscientious work and ability to the position of chief seven years ago. His death will be mourned by all his colleagues here, by the "men in blue" in many parts of British Columbia, and by officers and all ranks of the provincial and Royal Canadian Mounted Police forces. He will be missed by the citizens of Victoria generally, particularly by the City Hall departmental officials, with whom he came in daily contact.

The late Chief Heatley was an outstanding success in his calling, because he made it his life's work. Before he had reached his twentieth birthday he joined the force in his native Scotland, got a thorough training in the career of his choice in Edinburgh; migrated to Australia and widened his knowledge of police work with the mounted force of the State of Queensland, then returning to Britain, this time to do the "blue" in the north of England city of Sunderland. The call of Canada enticed him to this Dominion in 1912.

It was so recently that Chief Heatley was a familiar figure on the streets of Victoria, looking the picture of health and physical perfection, that it is not easy to realize he has passed beyond mortal ken. It had been generally understood, of course, that the illness which had attacked him was of a serious nature, but all who made frequent inquiries of his condition were optimistic that a buoyant mentality, a cheerful outlook on life in general, and a fine physique would prove sufficiently formidable to withstand the demands his affliction might make upon him.

To Chief Heatley's widow and family the Times extends its condolences. It hopes that they will find a measure of consolation as they recall his fine record as a police officer, his character and ability, and his sterling citizenship, furnishing an epitaph which they may contemplate with pride.

Buying and Selling

HAPPILY FOR CANADA, WE HAVE AT Ottawa a government, supported by a better understanding of Liberal policy throughout the country than has ever before existed, seized with the importance of the fact that the Dominion's business activity depends largely on the volume of our export trade.

Canada's domestic needs are comparatively stable and as the export demand for her products rises or falls, the activity of her industries increases or declines. The products of Canadian industry are highly diversified, but in spite of the importance of mining, lumbering and their allied industries, Canada is and will probably remain for many years primarily an agricultural country. The farm, of course, is the great source of our national wealth and from the farm come the basic products for our export trade. The principal farm products are foodstuffs and the principal market in the world for all kinds of food products is Great Britain.

But we must realize that other countries want to sell British food in various forms. According to the quid pro quo they are prepared to give will depend the size of the general commercial exchange between them.

Some Betting Turnover!

IT SEEMS INCREDIBLE THAT $2,000,000 a year is wagered on football and racing in Great Britain. Yet it seems to be true. Writing in The Daily Express (London) Mr. Trevor Wignall tells us that three families out of every four are now investing in what can only be described as a vast industry.

Mr. Wignall says a sum of £20,000,000 was invested in the 1935-36 "football pool" season, and it is already known that this amount will be doubled by next May. (The evidence that £400,000,000 is being spent on betting every year is called authoritative—"the result of careful investigation.")

The poundage on postal orders for the pools exceeds £25,000 per week, which is over £1,000,000 for a full football season, and to this must be added the huge sums paid over for stamps. There is no need to stress that the G.P.O. is a very substantial beneficiary. It also is to be noted that this two-billion-dollar betting turnover is just a little more than half the amount of the national debt of Britain before the Great War.

War Waifs

ONE OF THE MOST HEART-RENDING aspects of the long and bloody Spanish civil war has been the fate of little children. One observer estimates that more than 900,000 have been made helpless and homeless during the fighting.

The plight of all war refugees is sad enough, but what of these waifs—nearly a million of them—who now are without food, homes, friends or adequate clothing? How can the Spanish nation, regardless of which side wins, ever hope to rear these children into useful, happy men and women?

B.C.'s Japanese

THE CONSERVATIVE MEMBER FOR The Islands in the provincial Legislature, Captain MacGregor Macintosh, is a little disturbed about the number of Japanese already in British Columbia, those coming in each year, and the rate the race is multiplying in our midst. While his statement may not have been fully in accordance with fact, if there is anything radically wrong the public will be informed. Incidentally, under the gentlemen's agreement between Canada and Japan—which antedates the Great War—immigration is limited to 150 persons a year.

Captain Macintosh was particularly concerned about the future of Mayne Island, with which he is thoroughly familiar—and talked about the Japanese "taking over" that part of the province. Spokesmen for the Japanese residents have denied his statement, which included the following charges:

1. That young Japanese have left the island to fight for Japan, either in army, navy or air force.
2. That a relative of a Japanese admiral or that other military officers reside on the island.
3. That Japanese of Mayne Island have a lower standard of living than white loggers or fishermen.
4. That Japanese contemplate owning Mayne Island. They have only a small acreage of their own—300 or 400 acres—but they rent additional acreage.

It is set forth in support of the denial that Mayne Island Japanese have raised among themselves an annual super-tax to keep the school in operation and that in no part of British Columbia are there to be found Japanese more loyal to Canada.

Federal and provincial officials are closely watching everything that is going on in which Canada's relationship with Japan may become involved in any way. We suggest, therefore, that there is nothing in the Japanese immigration with which the authorities are not quite familiar. The public has no reason for excitement or alarm over Captain Macintosh's statement. That he made it in good faith is obvious.

Design For Living

DR. RALPH GERARD, PROFESSOR of physiology at the University of Chicago, comes forward with what he terms three "earmarks" for the identification of "intelligent behavior."

The first earmark, says Dr. Gerard, is "the absence of superstition; the emancipation from fear of nature and the here-and-now prejudices of the group."

Second, the scientist contends, intelligent behavior must be marked by "tolerance" in which "the new is neither fatuously accepted nor blindly damned," and in which decisions are reached "after due instruction in and evaluation of the facts, pro and con."

"Third," says Dr. Gerard, "intelligent behavior does not confuse the symbol with the thing. Words themselves are classes and stand only as symbols which are imperfect and shifting representations of that for which they stand. Even facts are abstractions and, like words, may lead via the machinery of the most impeccable logic to bizarre conclusions."

Dr. Gerard contends that "pure science" is the only hope for the future of civilization. He believes that it would be unwise to eliminate the selfish elements of self-preservation from man's make-up, but that it is "surely desirable to control and guide them."

But the scientist refutes, in part, his own contentions when he says that science, through genetics, could improve the human breed—but does not know what to breed for; and could train thoughts, motives and actions along new channels—but does not know what to educate for.

Probably most of us would be content just to accept Dr. Gerard's earmarks of intelligent behavior as a design for present living, and let social evolution take care of the future.

Notes

When a machine is well-oiled, it makes the least noise. With humans, it is just the opposite.

Few of us covet the wealth of Ford and Rockefeller. All we want is a little more than our friends have.

Laws do not increase national income. They merely increase one group's income by taking it from another.

The Nazis decree that all German girls must work six months before they can go to college. That might be a remedy for our over-crowded Canadian colleges.

SUCCESS STORY

From Detroit Free Press
A high school girl in Port Huron was looking around for a way to make her own living instead of leaning on others.

She noticed that many young people in her set were "fed-up" on the after-theatre eating places available to them.

And so she borrowed the necessary capital from her father and opened a chicken sandwich shop.

After a year's success, she had repaid the loan and now owns the business herself.

Just a repetition of the old, old story. While others are sitting around and twiddling their thumbs and lamenting that there are no longer opportunities in this country, a girl with an idea steps out and proves that the grouches and defeatists are all wrong.

Loose Ends

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

BOY MEETS GIRL

THE FEATURE writers are having a good time with the new 16-year-old Queen of Egypt, playing her up as the successor to Cleopatra. This isn't very flattering to a great stateswoman, and perhaps not to the new Queen, either, since Cleo was also a great adulteress, murderer and poisoner. It is a curious parallel, though, that Egypt should have been a pawn in the game played by Rome in Caesar's time and again now. Rome had encircled the Mediterranean then, and is trying to do it again.

In this game the young King Farouk is being made a convenient rubber stamp of international Fascism. Yet it is wonderful how a little newspaper publicity can take a couple of swarthy 16-year-old kids and cast the glamour of royalty about them. Their marriage, which the bride didn't attend, has been whooped up everywhere as a glorious romance. In any civilized country, at their age, it wouldn't be permitted, except among the hill billies of the deep south, and the thought of it is repulsive to most people.

But this young black fellow is a king, even if his court and people are black fellows, and the divinity of kings hedges him, even if Mussolini is making a monkey of him. And even though he should still be at school, he can make serious trouble for the whole British Empire. The great art of Ballyho is making a hero of him, but the boy is just a nuisance.

FRIEND IN NEED

CAPT. MACGREGOR-MACINTOSH says we need a special census of Japanese in Canada because he suspects a lot of them are coming in here contrary to the Gentlemen's Agreement. It is shocking indeed to imagine that a great nation would fail to honor an agreement. The thing has never been heard of in modern times. Agreements between nations are always observed to the letter nowadays, so it is clear that Capt. Macintosh doesn't know what he's talking about.

The official theory at Ottawa is that we shouldn't get excited about such things. Few men in the Canadian Parliament have any notion of the Oriental problem here, and don't want to. The average down-east member thinks of the Orientals here as he would think of the Eskimos—harmless, cheerful fellows that we British Columbians worry about far too much. And as one brilliant parliamentarian said in the arduous debate last spring, the Rocky Mountains are Canada's first line of defence in the west.

The official theory is that we must not offend Japan lest she stop buying from us. And even if Japan won't let any Canadian establish himself there in competition with a Japanese, even if Japan is busy closing our Chinese market forever and overrunning the whole Orient, still we oughtn't to offend her or stop her penetration in this country because she buys some stuff from us. She is a Market, and a Market is a sacred thing, not to be touched by unhallowed hands.

So we obligingly ship her the munitions of war which she uses to close our Oriental market, and we let her citizens penetrate here into farming, fishing and lumbering as much as they please.

We are going to tame her with our kindness. We are going to calm her with trade. We are going to soothe her down by eating Japanese oranges at Christmas and shipping her metals for her guns. Thus, growing in prosperity through our efforts, she will cease to be a menace to the world and everything will be lovely. We are probably the best friend Japan has in the world. I do hope she appreciates it.

GYPSIES

IN VANCOUVER, where their morals are better than ours, they have lately attacked the horrid scourge of fortune-telling. Gypsies who tell fortunes are being driven from the city. Anybody who actually foretells the future, under Vancouver's interesting rule, is guilty of a grave offence, but so long as you don't mention the future you can tell fortunes as much as you like. In fact, the papers are full of advertisements for palmists, seers, clairvoyants and prophets of every sort. But they mustn't foretell the future.

At the same time, it is announced that the police have been checking up and they estimate that Vancouver spends something like a million dollars a year (I forget the figure, but what is a million more or less?) on Irish sweepstake tickets. And everywhere, of course, the most reputable citizens play poker and bridge for money. Even members of the Legislature have been known to do it. Yet a Chinaman who risks a few dollars on fantan or chuckaluck is rushed into jail as a dangerous public enemy, and a fortune-teller mustn't tell your future.

The real fact is that we are a nation and a race of gamblers, and only arrest the Chinese because it makes us feel more moral than we are. It gives us a fine sense of civic virtue to buy a sweepstake ticket and then arrest a Chinaman. All life has become a gamble with us. You gamble on your skin whenever you drive an automobile. You are gambling on your job and your future whenever the stock market goes haywire. And, through your government, you are gambling on war and peace year in and year out.

In fact, international affairs and all politics have become one gigantic gamble, one huge game of poker, with every chancellor in the world bluffing, usually with nothing but a pair of deuces in his hands. Life, which used to be a fairly settled business on our grandfathers' time, is now a glorious sweepstake in which a few people win the prizes. But we do love to arrest fortune-tellers and the odd Chinaman.

D. DERBYSHIRE

From a Correspondent

The Victoria Daily Times in its February, 1936, birthday series, gave an interesting sketch of the late Mr. D. Derbyshire of 1334 Johnson Street, especially in regard to his hobbies.

Mr. Derbyshire, who died December 13, 1937, was born in eastern Ontario, February 29, 1864, the odd day in leap year limiting him to only 17 anniversaries. There are several features in his life worthy of attention. Born of sturdy, reliant, pioneer stock, he homesteaded in Saskatchewan. He was the second Canada-first type of Canadian and naturally gravitated westward, later making his home in British Columbia.

Upon retiring, he chose Victoria as the ideal centre for a man who wished to motor, fish, paint pictures and develop handicrafts. Upon the urgent request of friends, one of his favorite galleries of pictures, the "Old Blacksmith Shop," was shown in the Victoria Provincial Exhibition of 1936, to the delight of hundreds of Canadians and American guests who had pioneered.

Mr. Derbyshire was a cousin of the late Senator Derbyshire who did so much to advance dairy interests in Ontario, and to develop the export trade in Canadian Cheddar cheese.

The Rev. A. E. Whitehouse, an old friend of the family, who conducted the funeral service in Victoria, said that "the name of Derbyshire was distinguished in culture, sound business and in agriculture, and has stood for character, manliness and stability."

The body was taken to Vancouver by her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Croake of Huntingdon, B.C., and interred in the Musselwhite Cemetery, near Abbotsford. During the last brief ceremony, flowers, instead of earth, were thrown into the open grave, to the immense relief of the mourners and their friends.

Mr. Derbyshire has left a commendable example of kindness, industry and good judgment. Both Mr. and Mrs. Derbyshire, following their own natural tendencies, have demonstrated Elbert Hubbard's motto: "Get your happiness out of work, or you will never know what happiness is."

Mr. and Mrs. Croake will now make their home with Mrs. Derbyshire.

SAW VIVISECTION HERSELF

To the Editor:—Your correspondent, writing under the above heading, who formerly was an anti-vivisectionist, describes how, after a visit to a research laboratory in California, she is now quite converted in favor of vivisection. But what did she see? She states that a research worker took time off to show her round, and here she found animals such as innocent rabbits and rats in open air pens having a rare good time; in fact, some of them had pet names; also in a large light airy room, behind a glass door, she caught sight of two white cat doctors administering a saline solution to an Irish terrier dog, and that's all.

Now first of all I would like to inform your correspondent that in England alone, according to government statistics, in 1928 there were over 300,000 cases of animals being vivisected during that year, and in 1935, or 1936, there were over 700,000 cases of animals vivisected, and only 32,000 under anesthetics.

Think now of the numbers of eminent surgeons in England and elsewhere who condemn this horrible work. It is not our ordinary house doctors who I would blame, but these research friends, and students, who like children, "want to see the wheels go round" and who care not what awful agony these animals suffer, and, after all, do these serums and nostrums now in use, warrant all this suffering that animals are put to in vivisection?

Some time ago, a human monster, who had evidently no heart of his own, succeeded, after torturing numberless cats, in placing an India rubber heart in "Tommy," and it lived for five minutes. Well, I'm still troubled with heart trouble, and doctors can do nothing for me. But do you think, I'd wear an India rubber heart? Not if I know it. Think, too, of the thousands of monkeys and apes that man Veronoff has tortured to provide some senile old idiots with monkey glands. I'm 84 years of age next month, and certainly do not want to be inoculated with monkey tricks, and am very glad to know that there is a stop to these monkeys being exported to the States.

I would advise your correspondent to look further into the horrors of vivisection before having a good word to say for it. Maybe she has a pet dog, and how would she like to see it having its vocal chords taken out to prevent it's agonizing screams under vivisection.

WORTH ONLY 50 CENTS

To the Editor:—There is an old saying in the north of England: "Tak awl and gie nowt." The same applies to the department of radio, and I think it is about time the people got up on their hind legs to kick the lid off this racket. Fifty cents is all the fee is worth. It is pretty hard on the working chap. It is the only thing they have to amuse them, so let's have some action and get behind the dealers and Chamber of Commerce and get a petition. I am sure everyone would sign it. If the radio department had improved reception it would not have been so bad. Conditions are worse than two years ago, when you only paid the dollar. So let's start the ball rolling before it's too late and get some action.

DAVEY DENMAN.

A FARMER ON FANTASTIC DEFENCE SCHEMES

To the Editor:—On this burning question of national defence we are warned by a lot of illusionary irresponsibles who imagine they are patriotic, to keep Canada isolated from neighboring co-operation with the republic to the south.

This method is pure fantasy, and has neither sound foundation nor genuine fact.

The United States, on account of her geographical position in relation to our own, her strength, wealth, resources and aspirations, the friendly associations of both peoples, unmistakably prove her to be our most reliable succor in preventing or repelling any covetousness ever attempted again on this American continent by a foreign power.

Canada, O Canada! You never, never can adequately defend your borders against the attacks of a powerful, designing aggressor like we see today thrusting forth their fangs.

Mother England, unfortunately, has her shoulders weighted heavily with the unhappy burdens of responsibilities to the East, both near and far. Her very existence as a great nation and parent of an empire is threatened. We shall be ever grateful for her protecting influence to both Christianity and civilization. But we are now supposed to be grown up to shoulder our own responsibility and sustain our own existence.

Closer co-operation with America does not mean the surrender of our precious British prerogatives.

Recent feats of aviation over the North Pole should teach us the unimpregnability of our borders. If the Russians can fly to this continent, so can the Japs, and can we fortify the whole Arctic Circle? Never! With all the men and money Canada could produce in a thousand years. I say it is a fantastic procedure.

This advice will be little noticed, I realize, nor long remembered because it emanates from a farmer, an unknown man. But I want to remind my readers it was farmers' fury at Lexington and Concord, directed by Nathaniel Hale, that fired "the shot heard round the world" and caused unwise George II the loss of the wealthiest portion of his domain, and who can predict other than it may be farmers' fury and indignation that may save our beloved George VI and for ourselves—and our descendants the "Land of the Maple Leaf Forever?"

God Save the King.

"MYSTERIES REVEALED"

To the Editor:—With reference to the press references to my free public lecture on "Revealed Mysteries" to be given under the auspices of the Reformed Episcopal Church this Wednesday evening, I will deal with such questions as, Where do we stand today in relation to Biblical prophecy? What are we doing to counteract the imminent peril, which is at our very door? Who and where are the following: The dragon, the man of sin, the false prophet and anti-Christ? Where does the king of the north come to his end, as pointed out in the Bible, and does the location already bear his name?

R.C.A.S. CORPS

To the Editor:—It has been suggested that an association of past and present members of the Canadian Army Service Corps should be formed in Victoria.

This corps has always attracted men with special knowledge and training, and consequently their kindred interests tend to keep them loyal to old corps and keen to know what is happening in these days of mechanization and reorganization.

If those interested will send their names and addresses to me at 622 Vine Street, I shall be glad to arrange for a preliminary meeting.

JOBS FOR ALL

To the Editor:—As illustrating this weakness of the human mind, look for a moment at Mr. Averill's recent letter: "Social Credit's Way," which makes this cool claim: "Each month the government will send each citizen a cheque drawn on the National Credit Account of the amount of the dividend—just as an employer pays wages. Any bank will cash such cheques and debit them to the N.C.A. Then people will be able to buy all the goods the 'national machinery' can produce. This will give employment to all." Coming after the rather fierce result of a two-year preliminary center by Messrs. Douglas and Aberhart, bankers (incorporated), fierce for the Alberta suckers who believed their fairy tale this cold-blooded figment of a diseased imagination is recommended as a good bed-warmer for a S.C. menage in British Columbia.

Employment for all? Well, perhaps! But methinks there are a few who love not work so much that, when their dividend cheques give them the means to buy everything they wish they will go one step out of their way to ask for work, especially now that the king of the technocrats has told them that work is for slaves only, that is for self-tending machines. Should there happen to be a majority of that stripe who really prefer not to bother about employment, which some call work, why then it will be just too bad for that national credit account, for it will soon run dry, and Canada's credit abroad will go, like Alberta's, to the blighted bow-wows.

But look at home. What is going to happen when those cheques are dishonored or, as in Alberta, fail to arrive? There is such a thing as the last straw, and then anarchy. Let Mr. Averill contrast conditions here in British Columbia, where he broaches this pretty theory, with the ugliness of its actuality in the only spot where any attempt to put it in practice is being made. Major Douglas, the world's kingpin social creditor, advised Alberta's Premier to "order his bankers to get busy on their job," that is to produce, after creating from empty air, the funds necessary to implement his promises. Can't do the impossible? Nonsense! Hand over your banking licenses. Out you go. And let the Alberta press be dumb!

After that the appeal courts, and beyond their judgments nothing, unless some poor fool suggests something much worse than foreign war.

Englishmen like fiction—but only under that name, as a novel. When it comes to business affairs, while open-minded for new ideas, they insist on something practical, solid, and above all sane. Nor will any "league of hallucinations" cut much ice with a hard-headed Scot.

WHO GETS THE DIFFERENCE?

To the Editor:—Please tell me why the community is not furnished detailed information with regard to the following facts: No. 7 hard wheat is worth less than $1.50 per 100 pounds, yet flour retails for over $5 per 100 pounds.

It takes 150 pounds of wheat to mill out 100 pounds of flour. From this the milling company gets 100 pounds flour, 7½ pounds bran and 7½ pounds of shorts. Allowing $1.80 per 100 pounds for the bran and shorts, 100 pounds of wheat would represent a gross return to the miller of, flour, 85¢; offals, 81 cents; total, $5.81 for 100 pounds of wheat. This is not all for the millers use very little, if any, No. 1 wheat. Mixtures of Nos. 2, 3 and 4 make a very good flour; in fact that is what the various best grade flours that we buy are made from.

The cost of milling 100 pounds of flour is not more than 50 cents, so where does the difference go? This is something that the public, the community that a paper is supposed to serve, would like to know.

This same long-suffering community could also use a little information dealing with the operations of the "meat packers." Then, if the paper was still anxious to render "up-to-the-minute" service, it would be very nice to know why a jobber has to have as much for turning an article over as the manufacturer's concern gets for supplying the raw material and making the article up.

The first convention will be the British Columbia Teachers' Association, which will gather here over the Easter holidays. Members will meet April 17, 19, 20 and 21. Leaders of education in the province will attend and some outstanding addresses will be heard.

POSTMASTERS TO MEET
British Columbia postmasters will gather here in Convention on May 25, 26 and 27.

The next day the Northwest Federation of Stamp Clubs will hold meetings that will last until May 30.

The Pacific Coast Ophthalmological Society of eye, ear, nose and throat specialists will hold a series of meetings here from June 21 to 24.

The annual convention of Rotary International will be held this year in San Francisco, and will attract thousands from all parts of the world. Hundreds will come to Victoria on their way to and from the convention. Rt. Hon. Margaret Bondfield, Minister of Labor in the MacDonald Labor government and only woman member of the Privy Council, will probably be a visitor to Victoria during the summer. She will address the National Conference of Social Workers in Seattle. This convention will attract 5,000 delegates and will be held from June 26 to July 2. Special trips to Victoria will be a feature of the meeting.

In addition to the conventions, the railway and steamship companies will bring thousands of tourists to Victoria on specially-conducted parties.

Naval Veterans Hear Reports on Year's Work At Annual Meeting

Members of the Naval Veterans' Branch Canadian Legion met Friday night on the occasion of the annual meeting when reports on activities during the last 12 months were presented. It was announced that 1937 was one of the most active years since the club's inception.

Highlight of activities was the branch's contribution to the Fleet Week programme, when members acted as hosts to 480 visiting sailors. Smoking concerts, various sporting events, the annual picnic, the Trafalgar Day banquet and the children's Christmas tree party were among other branch activities.

Officers for 1938 were elected at a special meeting held in December to accommodate members from the R.C.N. H. D. Dawe was re-elected to serve his second term in office at that meeting, and Mr. Renton last night presented him with the past president's jewel and a Westminster chimes clock, suitably engraved, on behalf of members.

The president expressed thanks to all members, the secretary, Capt. W. J. C. Johnston, and the press for their co-operation during the last year. F. L. Elliott was presented with the runner-up prize in the billiard handicap.

Victoria Prepares For New Residents

Real Estate Dealers Report Many Inquiries From Prairie and U.S. People

Many prairie people and a number of United States citizens are expected to come to Greater Victoria during the next few months and establish themselves in homes—mostly small ones—real estate dealers in Victoria report.

Real estate men in the city are optimistic regarding the outlook for the next few months. January, they explained, is usually an exceedingly dull month, but since the first of the year many inquiries have been received for properties and new homes.

"Last year was a good year, and we expect 1938 to be even better," E. Frank Burton, president of the Victoria Real Estate Board, said this morning. "This month the business has held up well."

One dealer reported a large number of older, bigger homes sold for conversion into apartment suites. Several renovations of this type were done last year and have proved profitable investments.

GERMAN SETTLERS

The Cowichan district reports a large influx of German settlers there from prairie districts, and direct from Germany. Enough Germans have arrived in recent weeks to warrant the establishment of a German Lutheran Church. Most of the German families are living on small farms and ranches at Glenora, just north of Duncan.

The prairie people are looking for small homes, with a little land, not far from Victoria. Inquiries have been made regarding Sooke, Happy Valley and Metchosin.

Girls Urged To Study Problems

"Y" Conference Is Held With Much Success

That a knowledge of the social problems of our city, community and country should be one object of our youth groups was the subject around which the Sunday morning session of the Y.W.C.A. girls' conference revolved.

The topic, "Club Programme and the Social Order," was under discussion led by Miss H. Kirkwood, general secretary. The importance of being well-informed regarding legislative governing working hours and wages for women and girls was emphasized, together with the procedure used by authorities of the law in cases of delinquency among girls.

It was also suggested that boarding facilities in relation to the average income of a working girl might be investigated. Other points dealt with by the group were the facilities for wholesome recreation and opportunities for normal participation in mixed group activity with young men. It was felt that club objectives of this nature would give an added quality to the club programme.

SKIT PRESENTED

An informal lunch by the fire with music, provided a sociable interlude before the afternoon session began. "The Madhatter's Economics," a short skit on present day international problems, was ably presented by Gwen Walker, Ida Pierce and Jean Meighen, three members of the Versatile Club.

Miss Renee Watson, a delegate from Victoria College to the conference of Canadian University Students held in Winnipeg, gave an interesting review of the findings of that conference. Two piano solos were rendered by Miss Gwendolyn Gibbs as an introduction to this session.

An interesting talk by Rev. John Bell, assistant Minister of First United Church, dealt with Christian attitudes in our modern world. Group discussion followed, during which the subject, "Am I an Independent Thinker?" was discussed under the leadership of Miss K. O. Wright, Miss Blanche Alward and Miss Muriel Johnson. The findings of these groups presented during the tea hour by Miss K. Cameron outlined the predominant thought of the various groups.

Rev. A. E. Whitehouse brought the conference to an appropriate close by his excellent talk entitled "Between Two Generations," given at the evening services of the Metropolitan United Church, attended by the conference group.

"GAY NINETIES" PARTY

Fifty girls in quaint old costumes attended the "Gay Nineties" dinner which marked the opening of the conference on Saturday evening at the "Y." Miss Margaret Ryan presided. The dinner tables were attractively arranged with daffodils, and at each place was a little colonial nosegay.

The programme included club songs, skits, selections by the "Kitchen Orchestra," in which the Y-Owenca girls took part, and a play by the Senior Business Club, written by Gertrude Durkin. The Junior Business Club presented a skit, "The One-Hoss Shay," and all joined in singing such old favorites as "Put On Your Old Grey Bonnet," "Long, Long Ago," "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," and "In the Good Old Summer Time."

J. W. Gibson of the Provincial Department of Education, gave an interesting address, illustrated with motion pictures, showing the wild flowers of British Columbia.

Old-time dancing brought the evening's programme to a close.

Co-eds Enjoy Strenuous Doings

"Invaders" Dance And Swim Before Leaving For Home

With their customary exuberance, co-eds from the University of British Columbia and Victoria College celebrated the annual "invasion" on Saturday with a round of athletic and social activities which constituted an endurance test.

Rugby and basketball, aquatic contests and dancing filled the time until the invaders, to the number of about 450, left for Vancouver on the specially chartered boat. Despite the strenuous nature of the programme arranged for their stay in Victoria, the "never-say-die" co-eds danced and played games all the way over to the mainland city, and as a final gesture, voted the "invasion" as the best yet.

In the afternoon the students thronged the Crystal Garden for the tea-dance and aquatic contests which filled in the time between the rugby match and the basketball game.

A four-piece orchestra supplied the music for dancing, which was quite informal and took place simultaneously with the swimming competitions. A popular interlude was provided by the Varsity student musicians who replaced the orchestra for a brief space to play their college song, "Hail, U.B.C.," which was greeted with ringing cheers.

The Victoria College Students' Council had charge of the arrangements, the dance committee comprising the Students' Council president, William Petrie, Ray Adamson and Miss Ella Hudson.

Victoria College faculty, which acted as patrons, was represented by Principal P. H. Elliott, Professor E. S. Farr, Professor Cunningham, Professor R. Wallace, Professor Black, Professor E. Savannah, Mme. E. Sanderson-Mongin, Miss Cann, Miss R. Grant, Miss R. Shields and S. Pettit.

The U.B.C. Students' Council committee was headed by the president, David Carey, this year's Rhodes scholar; Malcolm Brown, president of the literary-scientific executive, who had charge of the transportation details; John Brynjolfsson, junior member of the Students' Council; Edward Disher and Clifford Robson and O. Durkin, who had charge of the musical details, including the orchestra which played on the boat from and to Vancouver.

A.Y.P.A. LOCAL COUNCIL

The meeting of the Victoria and District Local Council was held Thursday night in the Memorial Hall, presided over by George Bennett. Reports were given by R. Clark on extension work, Miss M. Holyoake on the rally held at St. Mary's Hall, C. Howland on finances and the pledge fund, Miss L. Trickett on the presidents' meeting.

A committee was formed under the chairmanship of K. Hines to arrange for a pre-Lenten rally to be held at St. Mark's Church on February 27, to which all upland branches will be invited. Len Dixon spoke on the voluntary blood transfusion service of Victoria and recommended that the A.Y.P.A. support it. H. Clague, programme convenor, requested all branches to send him programme suggestions for distribution.

Miss Anne Crockett, council secretary, asked for an assistant, owing to her added duties as president of St. Matthias branch. Miss Peggy MacDonald accepted the position and will act as corresponding secretary. Reports were received from branch representatives with regard to affiliation with the United Young People's Council. Considerable discussion followed, but, owing to circumstances unforeseen, a definite answer could not be given and the matter will be carried forward to another meeting.

Calgarian Nears 100th Birthday

CALGARY (CP)—Miss Elizabeth Le Page sat comfortably in her chair and talked to those about her of the days when she was young while her two great-nieces were busy icing a birthday cake and her great-great nephew, nine-months-old Ross Haslam, banged merrily on the tray of his high chair.

Miss Le Page tomorrow will celebrate her 100th birthday. Born January 25, 1838, in Rustigo, about 18 miles from Charlottetown, P.E.I., she is the daughter of Elisha Le Page and Maria Blatch Le Page.

Miss Le Page thinks hard work never hurt anyone, and said she had plenty of it in her day. "We made our own blankets, fine linen and clothing for the family, and I still have a pair of blankets on my bed and some towels and table linen in use which I wove when I was a girl."

"I don't know much about what young people do now," said Miss Le Page, "but I guess they are all right. I don't think they have to work as hard as we did when I was young."

For the past 40 years Miss Le Page has lived here with a nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Haslam.

Birthday Of Hotel Gay Event

With an influx of guests from the Empress of Canada, whose sailing was delayed until yesterday morning, to lend additional interest, the supper dance at the Empress Hotel on Saturday evening was one of the gayest of the season.

It marked the climax of the hotel's 30th birthday celebration, and the special numbers featured by the hotel orchestra were "The Snake Charmer," "Dipsy Doodle" and the popular "Bei Mir Bist du Schon."

BIRTHDAY TEA
At the special birthday tea held in the afternoon, over 300 guests filled the flower-decked rotunda and enjoyed the fine, robust singing of Pierre Timp, popular baritone. Splendidly accompanied at the piano by his wife, he sang "The Sleigh" (Richard Kountz), which was enthusiastically endorsed; "Song of the Toreador" (Bizet), Gourdon's "Even the Bravest Heart May Swell," "When My Fancy's Running High" (Hutton), "Youth" (Alltson) and Victor Sanderson's "The Victor."

In a prominent place was displayed the gift of flowers from Mrs. Angus Campbell, 30 American Beauty roses, one for each milestone of the hotel.

Occupying a place of honor in the rotunda was the huge, beautifully decorated birthday cake, which, still uncut, was dispatched by the hotel management to the B.C. Protestant Orphanage for the little inmates, much to the joy of the kiddies.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

1. Is it better for a man to say "Do you have the next dance taken?" or "May I have the next dance?"
2. Should a girl apologize for not following perfectly?
3. Should a man be responsible for dancing with his own partner whenever she does not have a dance taken?
4. May a girl ignore a partner's "Thank you" at the end of a dance?
5. At a party where there is no one presiding over the punch bowl, does the girl serve her partner and herself?

What would you do if—
You are a girl and at the end of a dance you find that your partner for the evening is nowhere in sight—
(a) Let your last partner worry about what to do with you?
(b) Ask to be excused and go to the dressing room for a minute or two?
(c) Ask him to take you to the 'chaperons' corner?

Prediction China Will Win War

EDMONTON (CP)—China will win "eventually" in the present Japanese-Chinese conflict, Lui Weichin, former mayor of Nanking, said in an interview here Saturday night after addressing a gathering of more than 100 Chinese.

Mr. Lui, delegate of the nationalist government, asserted thousands would suffer "until we manage to overwhelm the Japanese invaders by pitting our manpower against their modern equipment."

Died Smiling at 100
LEXDEN, Eng. — Paying tribute to Mrs. Elizabeth Eltringham, 100, who died from injuries from a fall in her room, as "a dear old lady who died with a smile on her face," Coroner F. J. Smith in announcing a verdict of accidental death, said he doubted whether an inquest had ever been held before on a person of that age.

Indians of many North American tribes kept turkeys, but the South American Incas apparently never saw these birds until Spaniards brought turkeys to Peru.

New Crop Control In United States

Cut of 15,000,000 to 30,000,000 Acres in Plans Made For 1938

WASHINGTON (AP)—Tentative United States crop control arrangements for the 1938 season provide for a reduction of between 15,000,000 and 30,000,000 acres in plantings of the major food and fibre crops, Agriculture Department officials said today.

Such a reduction would involve between 5 and 10 per cent of the total acreage planted to the same crops in 1937. Officials said most of the cut would be in cotton and wheat—crops of which the nation now has huge supplies.

Tentative planting goals are aimed at a total acreage of 275,000,000 to 295,000,000 acres in cotton, wheat, tobacco, rice and other soil-depleting crops. In 1937, the area planted to these crops totaled 305,700,000 acres, officials said. Farm land available for all crops exceeds 365,000,000 acres.

A scientist points out that dragons, barnacle geese and other non-existent creatures would never have been taken seriously by gullible people, if early explorers had been required, as they are now, to bring back their discoveries for museum exhibition.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today

JANUARY 23, 1913
(From The Times Files)

Just as the feat of raising the sunken steamer Chesapeake was about completed at Van Anda, Texada Island, last night, the vessel rolled over and started to settle in deep water once more. As soon as the Chesapeake is refloated she will be towed here for repairs.

Challenging Frank Gotch for the wrestling championship of the world, Zbyszko, the great Polish grappler, will appear at the Victoria Theatre on February 1.

The James Bay Athletic Association plans on erecting a handsome new clubhouse at the Gorge. Besides a spacious gymnasium, it is hoped to have a building where the members can reside if they wish, with a restaurant, a billiard room and a plunge bath.

Another highly successful ice carnival was held last evening at the Arena, with approximately 800 gaily-garbed skaters joining in the many events.

The school board last evening again elected Trustee George Jay as chairman of the board. This will be Mr. Jay's eighth term as chairman of the Victoria School Board.

The city has definitely decided to widen Pandora Avenue to a uniform width. Most of the property involved in the condemnation proceedings has already been acquired and the city will, in the near future, go ahead with the improvements.

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel."

TUESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1938

Benefic planetary aspects rule today, according to astrology. It is fortunate for all sorts of work, material and mental.

The morning is auspicious for whatever is constructive and progressive. Engineers, architects, builders of ships and all who are engaged in mechanical construction are well directed.

Women are subject to the most fortunate influences and should use their energies wisely. It is a lucky day for seeking any form of employment.

There is a happy omen for weddings under this rule of the stars. Love will be more prevalent than wealth, probably, but long partnership is foretold.

Theaters will gain greatly in support, and leading cities will encourage brilliant stage productions. Young players may expect recognition.

This is an auspicious day for shopping expeditions. Purveyors of clothing, millinery and jewelry should profit. Heavy floods in the Mississippi and other rivers are prognosticated—the eastward spring. Heavy losses again are foretold in several cities.

Canada may face problems in government this winter. There will be growing unrest due to the high cost of living. Military affairs will be unsatisfactory.

Anti-war sentiment will be widespread. The propaganda, intended to arouse patriotic enthusiasm in North America, persons whose birthdate it is, have the augury of a year of progressive good fortune. For many are foretold pleasures and new friends.

Children born on this day probably will be gifted intellectually and they will win acclaim through literary talents. Soldiers and statesmen also belong to this sign of Aquarius.

Robert Burns, Scottish poet, was born on this day, 1759. Others who have celebrated it as a birthday include General George Edward Pickett, Civil War commander, 1825, and former Vice-President Charles Curtis, 1890.

Honey is the oldest form of sweetening used by man.

VICTORIA Today Welcomes "BIG SISTER"

We predict that this lovely lady will take the town by storm. Who is she? Why, "Big Sister," of course. She is the heroine of the dramatic Ringo daytime radio programme that starts today and will be broadcast every Monday through Friday. You'll thrill to Martin Gabel as Dr. Wayne and a charming Alice Frost as "Big Sister." Don't miss it. Tune in.

ALTHOUGH most of the experts did not get out on the limb, apparently still remembering the beating they took on the Schmeling-Louis battle, James J. Braddock, the "Cinderella Man" from North Bergen, New Jersey, really upset the dope when he won the nod from Tommy Farr Friday night in New York. Many of the boys had Braddock all bundled up and ready to hand back to his wife and kiddies, but he has bobbed right back into the heavy-weight fight picture.

Now that Braddock has won another fight it will be interesting to see just what the promoters do with him. There has been some talk of matching the former stevedore with Maxie Baer, who has been doing nothing lately but act the role of proud papa. They may be able to get Baer back into the ring again, and it would not be much of a surprise if Braddock whipped him the same way he did when the championship was at stake. Braddock hardly rates a return match with Joe Louis, and he will never get a match with Schmeling, not at least until the German gets a crack at that title. Schmeling is interested in only one man, and his name is Louis.

And it must not be forgotten that Braddock beat Farr over 10 rounds. It is hard to say what might have happened if the fight had gone five rounds more. In his dressing room after the bout Braddock was quite willing to admit he could not have gone much longer, so what would he do in another "title" bout, which would have to be over the 15-round route? Braddock has saved himself from fistic oblivion, but it is a question as to where he is headed.

King Levinsky, who has won several matches in a row since he quit busting beaks to bend bones, tells about his closest shave, the night he almost threw himself. Hammers and locks might just as well be hammers and saws for all the Kingfish can do with them, so imagine his embarrassment when one of those cavemen tossed him over his shoulder like a sack of potatoes and took hold of him in several places at once.

"All I could see was feet sticking up in the air," beams Levinsky, "so I grabbed the handiest one and gave it a twist. I never before realized my strength. It was my own toe." Flat broke after earning $300,000 with his fists, Levinsky now is being badly bent by journeymen wrestlers. The Kingfish, who collected $35,000 a couple of summers back for sitting on a strand of rope, burying his face in his gloves, and begging the referee not to let Joe Louis hit him, averages about $35 an exhibition these wintry nights, but takes his plight philosophically. The erstwhile fish peddler never knew what to do with money, anyway, and says that it wouldn't have done him any good if he had. "My family always took it away from me," he explains.

Levinsky, now only 27, fought nine world champions. He was paid $23,000 for three starts against Jimmy Slattery, $20,000 for as many against Maxie Baer, $18,000 for an equal number against Tommy Loughran and as much for a single shot with Mickey Walker, $12,000 for two fights with Primo Carnera, $10,000 for a four-rounder with Jack Dempsey, and $9,000 for dropping and beating Jack Sharkey. He tackled Maxie Rosenbloom... practically everybody of any account.

MAINLAND SOCCER

VANCOUVER—North Shore suffered its first defeat in 12 games here Saturday when they were beaten 2 to 1 by St. Andrews in a Mainland Soccer League fixture. The win put St. Andrews in second place in the loop standings, one point behind the league-leading North Shore outfit. St. Saviours defeated New Westminster, 3 to 1, in the game at New Westminster.

New York Outfit Smothers Maroons In Goal Barrage

Whip Montreal Club 8 to 2; Chicago Noses Out Boston Bruins 3 to 2

Detroit Winner

WEEK-END SCORES
Boston 9, Toronto 1.
Canadiens 4, Americans 0.
Chicago 3, Boston 2.
Rangers 8, Maroons 2.
Detroit 3, Americans 2.

Opportunist Eddie Wares, a green rookie, threatens to transform Detroit Red Wings into Stanley Cup contenders. At least, the 23-year-old Calgary player has won two games for them in two starts and that's a third of all Red Wings victories this season.

Unimpressive and rather slow in play, Wares, nevertheless, seems to have the ability to bag goals when they're needed most. He played his first game with Wings Thursday night and his goal broke a 2 to 2 tie with Chicago Black Hawks and sent Detroit on a 4 to 2 victory.

The stage was set for him again last night in Detroit when New York Americans and Wings were tied 2 to 2 in the third. And again he came through. Taking Alex Motter's pass midway in the period he beat Earl Robertson with a high drive that gave Detroit a 3 to 2 win.

Wares was obtained by Jack Adams from New York Rangers last week on the purchase option plan, and there is no doubt that if he keeps up anything like his present pace he won't go back to Philadelphia Ramblers, Ranger farm team.

UNUSUAL RECORD

While experts are wary of becoming too enthusiastic about the 180-pound right winger, because of his unpolished play, he certainly has an unusual record. Besides his two-game Winnipeg efforts this season, he played in one National Hockey League contest for Rangers last season and scored both goals in a 2 to 0 victory.

When he joined Wings they had played three straight ties and they now have run this undefeated record to five games. Their win last night would have brought them nearer third-place in the American division, except that Chicago, their opposition for that spot, beat Boston Bruins 3 to 2.

Bruins were probably tired after their sensational effort in Toronto Saturday night when they plastered the most one-sided score of the season on Maple Leafs in a fast, hard-fought game that 14,500 spectators enjoyed.

As Rangers won 8 to 2 from Montreal Maroons in New York last night, all four teams in the American division took two points, leaving the standing unchanged. The only move resulting from the week-end's five games was made by Montreal Canadiens who stepped into second place in the Canadian division over Americans by defeating them 4 to 0 in Montreal Saturday night.

Detroit rang in two goals through Hec Kilrea and Herb Lewis in the first six minutes. Sweeney Schriner scored in the first and Eddie Wiseman in the second for Americans to tie the score and give Wares his chance to become a hero a second time in four nights.

Americans were unlucky enough to find Canadiens going at top speed after their recent poor play. After a scoreless first period, Toe Blake and Polly Drouin tallied in the second and George Mantha and Paul Haynes rapped in the goals in the third.

Bruins were without one of their high scorers—Ray Gelfin—for the game against Leafs but it didn't seem to matter. While Gelfin lay in hospital for treatment to a jaw ailment, Bruins and Leafs staged the best period of hockey Toronto has seen this season in the first session.

Dominoes Defeat Varsity Cagers

Score 46 to 36 Victory in Exciting Basketball Duel Before Big Crowd

With the excited cries of the 1,000 fans who jammed the High School gym to the doors ringing in their ears, Victoria's crack basketball machine, the Dominoes, Saturday night meted out a 46-to-36 beating to the highly-rated Varsity crew, who last year stopped the Capital City boys in the provincial finals and then went sailing through to annex Dominion laurels.

The skirmish can probably be better described as a mad scramble for the ball, but as for action and excitement, there was nothing on the U.B.C. "Victoria Invasion" programme that could beat this stirring cage duel. It opened with both teams traveling at top speed, and they were still burning up the court when the gong signified the finish.

VISITORS SMALLER

Although the visitors from the university campus could not nearly match Dave Nicol's boys in height, they proved themselves no slouches when it comes to juggling the ball around. They were badly outscored in the opening bombardment, but in the final 20 minutes of play they turned on the heat full blast to outscore the locals by four points. It is quite probable that the campus representatives would have given the Domino club a closer fight on the scoreboard had they had the services of their star player and captain, Ran Mathison, who was not in uniform.

Big Bill "Moose" Rogin, the 220-pound heavyweight, who, with Chuck Chapman, form the guard under the Victoria hoop, was the man who sparked the Dominoes on the attack. He had 14 points to his credit. A rather small player who answers to the name of "Hooker" Wright, a Varsity defence man, who showed uncanny skill at bagging the iron hoop, was high for the visitors with one better than a dozen, and he was followed closely by Pat Flynn, husky tip-off, who had 11.

Smiling Hank Rowe was runner-up for the locals with 9 points, and Art Chapman was next with 7. Young "Busher" Jackson got the spotlight during his appearances on the floor by canning three beautiful baskets.

OPENING PLAY WIN

For the first six or seven minutes the battle raged fast and even, with each team potting point for point until a 6-to-6 deadlock was reached. At that time the Dominoes started to move out in front and were ahead 10 to 6 at the end of the quarter. In the next 10-minute period they really hit their stride, and (Turn to Page 14, Col. 1)

Local Hockey Team Triumphs

Whip Visiting Varsity Stick Handlers 6 to 1 at High School

Banging home three goals in the initial half and then coming through with as many again in the final session, the Victoria women's grass hockey team defeated the visiting U.B.C. squad 6 to 1 at Victoria High School Saturday afternoon.

Taking the offensive from the start, Victoria tallied their initial three in rapid succession, while they held Varsity scoreless. Soon after the interval the visitors registered their only goal of the game. Victoria came back later in the half to score another three after turning back a strong Varsity offense.

Scorers—Victoria, S. Swift 1, P. Sheppard 1, E. Lyster 2, K. Williams 1, E. Bridgman 1, U.B.C., M. Nevison 1.

GARRISON IN FOOTBALL WIN

Defeat Victoria City 4 to 2 in Price Cup Match; Worswick Stars

Driving through for three goals, Jimmy Worswick led the Garrison to a 4-to-2 victory over Victoria City in the semi-final of the Freddy Price Memorial Cup first division football series at the Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon. Played on a muddy field, the match attracted a small crowd.

Weakened through the loss of Wally Rowe, their regular goalie, who is ill, the City failed to show up to expected form, and for the greater part of the game were on the defensive. The redshirts switched their players several times during the 90 minutes, and that failed to help their team play. Eddie Moore and George Brandow shared duty as goalie.

At the start of play the City had only nine men on the field, and the Garrison naturally forced play. The arrival of Moody and Brandow brought the redshirts up to full strength, but the Tomnies continued on the attack and at the 10-minute mark took the lead on Worswick's first goal. Shortly after the Garrison scored another goal when a shot by Cook glanced off Glen Robbins into the net, but the goal was disallowed for offside.

The City came close to tying it up on a shot by George Payne that just slipped by the post. Jim Watt got the Garrison's second goal after 30 minutes with a fine shot to the corner. That ended the scoring for the first half.

City opened the second half with a strong offensive and managed to reduce the Garrison's lead to a single goal when Joe Robbins broke the net. The Garrison finally broke up the attack and Worswick made it 3 to 1. Ten minutes later the same player made it 4 to 1 with a drive from close in. Before the final whistle Frank Medlar notched the City's second counter, to end the scoring for the afternoon.

Bill Cull refereed.

Victoria City—Moore, G. Robbins, Glancy, C. Robbins, G. Payne, J. Robbins, Youson, Medlar, Peers, Moody and Brandow.

Garrison—Clarke, Wilkinson, Evans, Thompson, Wallace, Watt, Shone, Worswick, Stewart, Cook and Thorburn.

NANAIMO—Upper Island All-stars scored two second-half goals to register a 2 to 0 victory over Vancouver Radials Saturday in the first game of intercity soccer play. Two hundred fans saw the match.

Hon. John Hart kicked off. K. Symons refereed.

The teams were: Varsity—Bird, Leggett, H. McPhee, Trembley, Teagle, T. McPhee, Carey, Robertson, Vine. (Turn to Page 14, Col. 1)

College Supporters Steal Goal Posts Following 13 to 3 Win

The Thunderbird of the University of British Columbia swooped down from Point Grey on Victoria's Crimson Tide Saturday afternoon at Macdonald Park. The Thunderbird ascended again amid the cheers of over 400 invading students carrying with it a 13 to 3 McKeechie Cup rugby victory over the local representatives, a victory eked out in mud and amid rain squalls. The Varsity supporters also carried away the Victoria goal posts.

By reason of their win U.B.C. draws even with the Vancouver "Reps" in the current race for the coveted trophy while Victoria slumps back in their third defeat in as many games.

A streak of blond lightning in the person of Strate Leggett and an equally meteoric personality, Howie McPhee, were the inspirations of the Varsity attack during the afternoon. They set the example in the Thunderbird backfield and what an example it was. Minutes from the start of play Leggett, the pay-off man on right wing, scored from his position and a little later McPhee crossed the line. Varsity's third try came from Ron Upward, forward. Dave Carey converted two of his three attempts.

BRAY SCORES

It was not until early in the first half that Victoria was saved from blanket defeat. For nearly 10 minutes the Crimson Tide battered at the Varsity defence and then Doug Bray, brilliant young hook pushed across a loose ball and fell on it. Brown's kick for points failed.

Varsity pitted their shifty three-quarters against Victoria's pack, and although Bray hooked that ball back on nearly every occasion, the local backfield wasn't in the picture with the exception of a couple of occasions.

The Varsity backfield took out their men ball or no ball and the local three just didn't have the chance to show their stuff. While Leggett and McPhee starred for Varsity, individuality was equally prominent in the local ranks. Ferguson kicked brilliantly with the wind in the opening half at fullback. A newcomer to the "reps," Cyril Doherty performed like a demon on the right wing, while Harry Barber took good care of matters at inside-three.

Carey sparked the initial score for Varsity when Leggett streaked over and his conversion following the try was the kicking highlight of the game. A strong wind blew across the line of flight, but Carey judged it to a hair to make the extra points.

Hon. John Hart kicked off. K. Symons refereed. The teams were: Varsity—Bird, Leggett, H. McPhee, Trembley, Teagle, T. McPhee, Carey, Robertson, Vine. (Turn to Page 14, Col. 1)

Through the Suez Canal

Suez Canal: As we pass through the Suez Canal, my mind goes back to Ferdinand de Lesseps, the great French engineer. He was a dreamer, but he worked to make his dreams come true. For years he thought about, and planned, a canal which would join the Mediterranean sea with the Red Sea.

It was hard to raise money for the project, and hard to get public officers to agree, but at last he did the deed. The result was the Suez Canal.

Back in 1850, three continents were joined by land—Europe, Asia and Africa. Europe and Asia still are joined together, and it is in no way likely that they ever will be cut apart. Thousands of miles of their borders are together. Indeed, many geographers class Europe and Asia together as one continent—Eurasia. There is good reason for this, but old custom stays, and it is common to count the land mass as making two continents.

Africa, on the other hand, was joined to Asia by only a little land, between Egypt and northern Arabia. This land was what de Lesseps cut through when the Suez Canal was dug.

The canal was opened in 1869, and at once made a big difference in world trade. Ships traveling from Europe to India or China were able to save thousands of miles of distance, because they no longer had to go clear around southern Africa to reach the Indian Ocean.

A long-term lease was obtained from Egypt by the canal company. This company pays heavy dividends, for it collects large tolls on every vessel that uses the Suez Canal. Most of the stock in the company is owned by French capitalists and by the British government.

To pass through the Suez Canal, I boarded the S.S. Rawalpindi. We shall finish the passage in about 15 hours, then shall pass the port city known as Suez. Later this steamer will carry me down the Red Sea and across the Indian Ocean to India and Ceylon.

UNCLE RAY.

Tomorrow—Down the Red Sea.

OTTAWA (CP)—Dr. J. H. Putnam has been declared elected to board of control of Ottawa by Judge E. J. Daly after a recount of ballots cast in the municipal election December 6.

On election night Dr. Putnam was tied with Ald. Finley McRae for the last place on the board and the city clerk marked a ballot for Mr. McRae. Dr. Putnam then sought a recount. Judge Daly found Dr. Putnam elected by 37 votes over Mr. McRae, the revised figures being 10,682 and 10,645.

How Long Will Love Last?

Dorothy Dix

That Depends Upon You

A BOY and a girl who are soon to be married ask me what a husband and wife have a right to expect of each other. Well, the first great expectation of every bridal couple is that they will stay as romantically in love after marriage as they were before, but this should be classified as a hope rather than a demand, because none of us can control our emotions. When a husband and wife go on loving each other to the end of the chapter it is by the grace of God and not because of a sense of duty. The only vow that we take at the marriage altar that we cannot keep through our will-power is the one to love; for we cannot love the unlovable, nor even one for whom we have lost our taste.

So, then, you have no right to expect your husband or wife to love you merely because you are bound together in the bonds of matrimony. When, through the years, the fire never goes out on the altar, it is a miracle wrought by your guardian angels, and it is compounded in about equal parts of the domestic virtues and just pure luck. For to win love is one thing, and to keep it is something that requires, as the English say, a bit of doing.

But, coming down from the clouds of sentiment to the brass tacks of everyday living, there are some practical commonplace things that every husband and wife have a right to expect of each other and would go a long way toward making marriage a success instead of a racket for divorce lawyers if only they would meet their honest obligations.

Every husband or wife has a right to expect faithfulness from his or her mate. When a man gives a woman his name and trusts his honor to her keeping he has a right to expect her to keep them clean and not drag them in the mire. When a woman puts her life into a man's hands she has a right to expect him to guard well the treasure she has bestowed upon him and not throw it away for a wanton. The green-eyed monster has no place in the family circle. There can be no happiness in any marriage unless the husband and wife absolutely trust each other. Unless a man has had enough of philandering and a woman is tired of flirtations, in common humanity they should stay single.

Every husband and wife has a right to expect his or her mate to pull his or her weight in the boat. Every woman has a right to expect her husband to bring home the bacon, and every husband has a right to expect his wife to know how to fry it. The man who is a lazy, loafing ne'er-do-well, who sits on the do-nothing stool and lets his wife toil to support him, is no whit more blamable than the trifling, shiftless woman who keeps her house like a pigsty and feeds her husband on food that would poison an ostrich.

Every husband or wife has a right to expect at least common politeness from each other. Marriage does not exempt men and women from practicing the amenities of life. It only increases the necessity for observing them. Because a woman happens to be a man's wife does not give him the privilege of saying things to her that he would not dare to say to any strange woman who had an able-bodied brother, and that he would not dream of saying to a good stenographer or cook who could give notice and quit. Because the man is her husband does not make it less criminal for the wife to say to him, hateful little things she would not say to the ashman. Certainly husbands and wives have a right to expect to be treated with as much courtesy as strangers.

And most of all, husbands and wives have a right to expect that their mates will make some effort to make their marriage something more than a dreary endurance test; that they will do something actively to make them happy and make marriage worth while. The husband has a right to expect his wife to manifest some gratitude for all the hard work he does to make her comfortable. He has a right to expect her to jolly him a little and try to keep him amused, and not to become so absorbed in the children that she forgets she has a husband.

And the wife has a right to expect her husband to show some appreciation of her endless labor for him and the children. She has a right to expect him to pay her a few compliments and to give her at least a night out every week, and not to act as if just being married to him was all the pleasure any woman could ask. What happy world it would be if all husbands and wives realized all their expectations in marriage!

Sensing a Squeeze

Defender Foresees Declarer's Tactics and Makes Discards Which Defeat Contract

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY

SOLUTION TO PREVIOUS CONTRACT PROBLEM

Much has been written about squeeze plays executed by clever bridge players, and it is true that the ability to see the squeeze situations and to make this play is evidence of playing skill.

However, even more credit is due a defending player when he had to find a place for his losing club. He now played for a division of the spade suit that would permit its establishment, which would give him the remaining tricks if East held the heart king.

The third lead of spades revealed the bad spade break, but North evened up on luck by finding the heart king with East. His last resort was a squeeze, and he now played all his trumps, hoping that East would have to hold the high spade and West the high club. If this plan worked out, only one heart would be left in each hand.

East, however, knowing that he had to hold the high spade, on the 10th trick discarded the jack of hearts, and on the next the king of hearts. This enabled West to throw all his clubs and defeat the contract by taking the 13th and setting trick with the heart 10.

senses a squeeze situation coming up, and helps his partner out of the pincers of the declarer's long suit.

In today's hand, by discarding two seemingly important honors, East made it possible to defeat North's game contract in diamonds.

The opening lead was won with the ace. North returned a club, hoping the diamond ace might be a singleton, and he could thus ruff out his other losing club. However, West won the club, and then laid down the ace and three of diamonds, so North still South opened the bidding with one heart, and North responded with one spade. South then jumped to three and North to four spades. What action should East take with his rock crusher, after keeping silent all through the bidding?

RANGERS, CHICAGO AND DETROIT WIN HOCKEY

Sylvanus Apps, of all people, was in the midst of it. In a brush with Bill Hollett of Bruins Apps lost two front teeth on the Boston's defenceman's stick and promptly forgot his famous politeness. He waded into Hollett and both got major penalties.

KIEFER TERM IS REDUCED

Court of Appeal Substitutes New Charge and Reduces Assault Sentence

The Court of Appeal, in a judgment handed down today, reduced sentence against Klieve Kiefer from six months to four with hard labor, to start from the date of his conviction.

The reduction was made after the court had substituted a new charge. The accused was convicted by Magistrate Henry Hall on a charge of assault with intent to rob. That could not stand, the Chief Justice said in delivering judgment. Under statutory power, the court changed the charge to assault causing actual bodily harm and then reduced the term.

The court dismissed the appeal in the Winter vs. Schulte case, in which counsel for the appellant moved to set aside a Supreme Court ruling ordering restitution of estate moneys given by Irma Winter to Alma Schulte for safekeeping. The two principals, claimed money left in the bank by the deceased. Appellant's counsel sought to establish that money had been withdrawn and transported out of the country by arrangement of the two sisters. He argued that the contract by which the two had taken that course was illegal and neither could have recourse to law for recovery. The court ruled the judge in the court below had failed to give either an opportunity to prove the legality of their contract and the point was not at issue in the appeal.

In an important insurance ruling, the court held insurance not to be included in an estate and therefore not disposable by a judge, in the appeal of Dalton vs. MacDonald. The appeal was allowed on that ground. At the lower court hearing, the trial judge had reallocated insurance under terms of the Testators' Family Maintenance Act.

The appeal in the Vancouver case of Smith vs. B.C. Electric Railway Company Limited, regarding an order by the trial judge arising out of an accident case, was allowed.

Costs in the Bailey vs. Grogan appeal, a three-party action, were defined in a fifth judgment handed down today.

Accidental Death Inquest Verdict

James W. Mowat, 330 Pounds, in Habit of Shooting Crows

A coroner's jury this morning returned a verdict of accidental death at an inquest in Sands Mortuary over the death of James William Mowat, 77, of Tyndal Avenue, which occurred last Thursday from a large wound inflicted by a discharged shotgun shell.

Mr. Mowat used the gun to shoot crows and pigeons that alighted on the roof of his chicken house, the jury was told.

Donald Leask, nephew of the deceased, testified his uncle weighed in the neighborhood of 330 pounds; and invariably used a walking stick for support. He was in the habit of grasping the shotgun by the upper part of the barrel, with the butt on the floor, and proceed thus to the door or window of his workshop, from where he shot at the birds.

Mr. Leask testified that when Mr. Mowat acted in this way he would be leaning over the gun.

Other witnesses were heard. The jurors were: Samuel Hill, foreman; James Denholm, Geoffrey Cummings, George McCall, Grant MacDonald and Charles Lewis.

Damages Awarded In Car Collision

Judgment in favor of plaintiffs was handed down by Mr. Justice J. A. McDonald in Supreme Court here today on conclusion of argument by counsel in the hearing which started last Wednesday.

The action was for damages arising out of a car accident on the Island Highway near the Bamberton Road, in which two of the plaintiffs, Mrs. B. King and her mother, Mrs. Campbell, were injured when their car and a truck belonging to the Island Freight Service Limited, collided.

Mr. Justice McDonald fixed damages at $1,500 to Mrs. King, $50 to Mrs. Campbell and $223, representing medical fees, to Mrs. King's husband, M. H. King.

ESPIONAGE IS SCREEN THEME
"Spy of Napoleon" is British Film Production at Plaza

An outstanding and thoroughly entertaining programme at the Plaza Theatre is headed by "Spy of Napoleon," the J. H. production, which has been adapted from the famous novel by Baroness Orczy. The cast includes Richard Barthelmess, Dolly Haas, Frank Vosper, Francis Sullivan, Henry Oscar and George Merritt.

Espionage is the main theme of the story. The period is of the time of Napoleon III and the Franco-Prussian War. Dolly Haas enacts the role of the unwilling spy, coerced into intrigue by the emperor. In the film, Richard Barthelmess becomes the husband of Miss Haas, and only after thrilling escapes and adventures are they happily reunited at the exiled emperor's court in England.

"Spy of Napoleon" holds one's attention all the time and is a worthy addition to the growing number of first-rate British film productions.

The second feature is Joan Crawford and Robert Montgomery in "No More Ladies."

MUSICAL SHOW AT COLUMBIA
"The Cat and the Fiddle"
Features Jeanette MacDonald

International importance attaches to the teaming by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer of Ramon Novarro and Jeanette MacDonald in "The Cat and the Fiddle," romantic musical drama now playing at the Columbia Theatre.

As an instance of shrewd showmanship, it has seldom been surpassed. For the stars are not only popular favorites on this continent, but are rated among the greatest attractions of Europe. They are known there not only in the films, but on the concert stage.

Originally a stage hit by Jerome Kern and Otto Harbach, "The Cat and the Fiddle" has been brought to the screen with the original score intact. It includes such successes as "The Night Was Made for Love," "She Didn't Say Yes," "A New Love Is Old," "One Moment Alone" and "The Love Parade."

The second feature presents Preston Foster in "Outcast of Poker Flat."

Jossie Mansfield, a fascinating beauty of the post-Civil War period, is torn between her loyalty to Jim Fisk, picturesque railroad baron, who promotes her first big stage opportunity, and her love for Fisk's best friend and business partner. Jossie Mansfield is played by Frances Farmer in the new screen drama, "The Toast of New York," and is co-starred with Edward Arnold, Cary Grant and Jack Oakie, and is now being shown at the Atlas Theatre.

A glittering chapter of history is unfolded in this photoplay. Arnold portrays Jim Fisk, one of the most colorful figures in the gaudy age when the dollar found itself and burst its swaddling clothes.

During the war Fisk procured cotton from the south for northern markets, making a fortune out of his deals. Later he became one of the most powerful figures on Wall Street and one of the leading lights in the development of the Erie Railroad.

In the "Toast of New York" Miss Mansfield characterizes a girl who is lifted from lady's maid into star of theatrical and night life by Fisk.

Will Rogers Portrayed in Twentieth Century-Fox Picture

Rarely are all the intimate trivial details of any business or profession depicted in screen portrayals, a sweeping sketch for background purposes usually sufficing, but pharmacists, old and young, as well as anyone who has even been once in an old-fashioned drug store, will find a wealth of sympathetic authenticity in Will Rogers' portrayal of "Handy Andy" in the Twentieth Century-Fox picture which opens today at the Oak Bay Theatre.

Will tastes his mixtures as he goes along, using liberal quantities of his own judgment, sharpened by long experience, when the physician's handwriting on the prescription proves illegible.

His back-room boasts not only a constant supply of pharmaceuticals but a never-ending plimble game, the orderly progress of which is disturbed by a

The Braddock-Farr fight pictures will arrive in Victoria on Thursday and will be shown at the Plaza Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday according to R. Catharine, manager of the Yates Street theatre.

The pictures are claimed to show many close-ups of one of the best attended fights in many months.

"Wise Girl" Is Dominion Show

A fast-moving comedy drama with crackling dialogue, unfolding one of the most unique romances presented on the screen, is "Wise Girl," RKO Radio picture co-starring Miriam Hopkins and Ray Milland, which opens tomorrow at the Dominion Theatre.

The novel romance involves two natural enemies—a tempestuous Park Avenue beauty and a defiant Greenwich Village artist. The girl has promised to aid her wealthy father secure custody of his two orphan grandchildren who live with their uncle and legal guardian, a youth with a precarious income.

Miriam Hopkins evidences unusual versatility in her quick transitions from breezy comedy to heart-plundering drama. Ray Milland is equally impressive in the role of the struggling artist whose career is smothered the hoop with a rapid-fire bombardment that netted them 22 points before the breather arrived. At that point they were leading 32 to 15.

It was a different story in the final 20 minutes, when the Varsity players rallied to the call of their many supporters in the gym and staged stiff and numerous attacks on the local hoop with gratifying results. Had they started their rally a little sooner it is probable the students might have climbed up closer to their opponents on the scoreboard, but as it was they never got any nearer than 9 points in this session. The student attacks kept the Dominions on the defence more and they were not able to devote so much time to enlarging their margin.

Bud Matheson, Varsity player, was put off the floor early in the game by Referee Macedo for kicking the ball into the crowd.

Cowichan midgelets defeated Duncan 14 to 1, in the preliminary exhibition.

Tommy Macedo and Bob MacMurchie refereed.

Teams and scores follow:
Victoria Dominions—Davies (4), Taylor, Webster, Kinnear (2), Jackson (6), A. Chapman (7), Rogin (14), Rowe (9) and C. Chapman (4).

Varsity Thunderbolts—Matheson, Lucas (8), Pallas, Miller, Flynn (11), Turner, Straight (2), Wright (13) and Pringle (2).

SECOND TEAM WINS

The visiting Varsity second team was also in on Saturday's winning ride with Basil Robinson and Waddie Robertson scoring for a 7 to 0 victory over Victoria College on the lower pitch.

Almost on the opening whistle Robinson dropped-kicked for four points 30 yards from the College goal for the only score of the first half. Just before the final whistle Waddie Robertson snaggled the ball from the loose and raced 80 yards for a try.

Benny McMillan, Victoria, refereed, and the teams were:

Varsity—Griffin, Runkle, Waddie, Robertson, Smith, Cunningham, Robinson, Lang, Eric Robertson, Harrison, Long, Drummond, Mason, Madeley, Sheppard and Wilson.

Victoria College—Smith, White, Osler, Colvin, Brodigan, Noel, Symons, McLaughlin, Adam, MacLean, Miller, Williams, Lannigan, MacKay and McDonald.

Beulah Is Righted In Fifteen Minutes

Pacific Salvage Co. Now Preparing to Raise Motorship to Surface

Rolling back on an even keel by an intricate system of synchronizing power hauls, the motorship Beulah was being surveyed today preparatory to being raised to the surface.

The Beulah was righted from her bed at Ogden Point yesterday afternoon as a large crowd of Sunday sightseers looked on.

The righting of the ship was a perfectly timed job.

The actual rolling of the vessel into an upright position from a starboard lie occupied but 15 minutes.

Once the signal to "go ahead" had been megaphoned by W. G. Jordan, superintendent of the Pacific Salvage Company, the Beulah responded, rising steadily as purchase on the cable was increased until the order to "steady her" halted the revolving drums. The ship was within a few degrees of being upright.

A small scow used in connection with the salvage operations had become tangled in the gear dangling from the mainmast, and it hung over the afterdeck as the vessel came up. This had to be cut clear by salvage crews before another pull was made on the cables.

As the Beulah was held taut by the heavy steel cables she was securely lashed to the dock bollards to offset any possibility of the temperamental craft again lurching over. To make it doubly sure the big derrick scows moved closer in.

The broken surface of the water indicated there was a lot of air in the ship as she rolled over. The mainmast was slightly out of alignment and fragments of the afterdeck awning supports were adrift, but otherwise the ship appeared to be structurally undamaged.

As the decks came clear, suction used in the pumping operations were exposed.

SMARTLY TIMED
The plan of salvage worked out just as the men responsible for it had figured.

The rolling system was designed to put an evenly-divided strain upon the Beulah's hull. Chains passed under the hull from both sides and made fast to the port and starboard rails formed what might be termed a "scissors hold."

Leverage was given by well-placed kedge anchors and the intricate system of cables running through pulley blocks responded smoothly to the power pressure. The most vital pull was entrusted to the powerful derrick scow Little Giant, which hauled on chains passing under the stern.

Alongside her was moored the Island Tug and Barge Company's derrick scow, hauling amidships.

Capt. J. M. Newcomb directed his men on Ss. Salvage King, which used her winches with telling effect as the Beulah was whipped into the perpendicular.

The major part of the work ashore was done by the wrecking engine of Canadian National Railways, which was supplied with steam by the Ogden Point switching locomotive. Other pulls were taken by the assembly plant traveling crane and a gasoline-operated donkey engine.

At high tide this morning the Beulah, while resting on an even keel, was partly submerged.

Divers were working on her early today scaling up any holes that could be found in readiness for the raising of the freighter.

NOTED LABOR LEADER DIES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Andrew Furuseth, long a leader in the American labor movement, died Saturday. He was 83.

The "Old Viking" was president of the International Seamen's Union, and until old age weakened him in 1936 he had attended every convention of the American Federation of Labor since Grover Cleveland's administration.

Secretary of Labor Perkins paid tribute to Furuseth as an outstanding labor leader of "invaluable service in improving working conditions of the men who go to sea."

Around the Docks

PIONEER IN TONIGHT

Capt. H. Campbell, master of Ms. Pacific Pioneer, of the Furness (Pacific) Line, advised King Bros. this morning that he planned to reach Victoria between 7 and 8 tonight from Manchester.

The British motorship will berth at the Rithet docks to put ashore general cargo.

Six passengers are aboard the Pacific Pioneer, N. S. St. George Mansergh, W. H. Inskip, O. S. Walters, Mrs. L. Broadbridge, Mrs. G. E. Butterfield and Miss Butterfield, booked to Vancouver.

HELD FOR PASSENGERS
Held over at this port for 14 hours to await arrival of two delayed through passengers and eastern mails, R.M.S. Empress of Canada, Capt. William T. Kinley, sailed from the Rithet docks at 7.30 yesterday morning for the Orient via Hawaii.

Crossing from Vancouver by the midnight boat, which reached Victoria at 7, the belated passengers were hurried to the ocean docks by taxi, and as they went aboard the gangway was lifted and the liner nosed out seawards.

The lost time will be made up, it is expected, by the time the ship arrives at Honolulu.

Aboard were 350 passengers, including 160 for Hawaii.

HIT IN SILENT ZONE

Repairing $35,000 hull damage sustained when she went ashore off Race Rocks—January 9, Daphis Ms. Chilean Reeler is now at the Todd drydocks at Seattle.

Officers of the Chilean Reeler, which drove on Rosedale Reef in fog but got afloat by her own power, claim they were victims of a silent zone in the Straits of Juan de Fuca.

They say they did not hear the fog signal at Race Rocks. Later they saw the beacon of the aid to navigation, but they assert it was a fixed light and not a flashing light, the characteristic of the station.

Believing it was a fixed light and on the mast of a ship, the officers on watch altered the course and went on the reefs.

In past years a number of ships have gone ashore in the vicinity of Race Rocks in a silent zone, a strange atmospheric condition resulting from deflection of sound waves by fog banks of varying intensities.

LUMBER SHIPS DUE

Two lumber ships, Umberleigh and King Neptune, are expected to arrive at the Canadian National docks on Friday to load lumber cargoes, it was announced today by Henry King of King Bros.

Umberleigh will pick up a parcel of lumber for the United Kingdom and King Neptune will load for Australia.

Cowichan Bay loadings include the Jevington Court, expected tomorrow, and Ms. Samuel Bakke, due at the island port Thursday.

Ss. Point Lobos passed out from Cowichan Bay at 9 this morning, bound for the British West Indies, via San Francisco.

FREIGHTER FLOATED

B.C. Cement Company's freighter Island King was floated from Yarrow's marine ways on Saturday after completing hull cleaning and painting.

Other work at the Esquimalt plant includes the overhaul of the patrol steamer Malaspina and the tanker Ontarlotile.

Steels Up In Mild Rally On Wal St.

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market enjoyed a mild rally at the tail-end of today's proceedings after a desultory performance in the early hours.

In the sluggish comeback running to a point or more losses were reduced or transformed into advances of as much.

Utilities were ahead from the start, along with one or two gold mines and specialties.

Steels were subsequently given a modest lift when current mill operations were set at 32.7 per cent of capacity, up 2.9 points from last week. It was the fourth consecutive increase since the last slide began last fall. Most stocks in the group were unable to follow through and some yielded their gains in the final lap.

Coppers received belated support as the export price of the metal was cut under the 10-cent mark and thoughts of expanding consumption coincident with a possible further shading of the domestic rate were revived.

Bonds and commodities were uneven. Wheat at Chicago was up 1/4 to 1/2 of a cent a bushel and corn was unchanged to up 1/4.

The French franc did better in terms of the dollar.

Wheat Futures Up Two Cents Today

WINNIPEG (CP)—Dominated by scarcity of offerings, Winnipeg wheat futures moved ahead a maximum of 2 cents today.

Minor local and outside buying orders accounted for advances which were 1 1/2 to 1 cent at the close, May at $1.27 1/2, July $1.20 and October $1.01 1/2, at $1.01 1/2.

Reports that dust was blowing in sections of the United States of moisture west of the Mississippi River induced a bullish tone to dealings both here and at Chicago.

Export business in Canadian wheat was small, chiefly a few lots of No. 3 Northern for shipment from Vancouver.

Chicago advanced about a cent, Liverpool closed 1/2 cent higher, and Buenos Aires in late dealings was 1/4 to 1/2 cent higher.

Cash wheat sales were small, with most grades unchanged. The trading in coarse grains accounted for minor advances. Rye moved ahead a cent, but there was practically no trade in other commodities.
